

Dean Dunn New President
Of Community Chest; Fox
To Run Campaign In Fall

Dean Seymour B. Dunn of Gettysburg College who was campaign chairman for the Community Chest drive last fall that went over the top for the first time in years, was elected president of the Chest and presented with a plaque Thursday evening at the annual meeting of the Community Chest organization at the engine house.

Later the Chest's board of directors chose Paul B. Fox, a vice president of the First National Bank, to chairman the drive this fall. He was named vice president of the Chest group.

The presentation of the plaque to Dean Dunn was made by the retiring president, William A. Lentz, "in appreciation of outstanding services" in the successful fund raising campaign last fall.

Elect Seven Directors
Chief item of business at the annual meeting was the selection of seven directors for the Chest board. The following were elected without a contest: Mrs. Willard S. Paul, Mrs. Clark Smith, Dr. Joseph Riley, Dean W. E. Tilberg, Retiring President Lentz, Atty. Charles W. Wolf and Dr. Bruce N. Wolff.

The election of the president and campaign manager came at the re-organization meeting of the board which followed the annual meeting.

PAUL B. FOX

Dr. Dunn, as 1959 campaign chairman, presented his final report on last fall's effort showing a total of $27,360 collected which was $1,060 above the goal. There were 2,034 contributors, an increase of 300 over last year.

CURRICULUM
CHANGES ARE RECOMMENDED

The faculty of the Bermudian Springs Joint School system met Thursday evening in the York Springs school cafeteria for a workshop in curriculum improvement and development.

Dr. Prince B. Woodard, associate professor of educational administration at Temple University, was the speaker and consultant. Doctor Woodard served for several years as director of curriculum in the schools of Richmond, Va.

The meeting began at 6:30 p.m. with a dinner served by the cafeteria staff. Fifty members of the faculty and administration were present. C. P. Keeler, county superintendent of schools, and his assistant, M. Francis Coulson, spoke briefly to the group.

3 Recommendations
Alfred Billett, high school principal, and Charles Phillips, elementary supervisor, served as chairmen for the sectional meetings which followed the main presentation. The speaker was introduced by Amos D. Meyers, the supervising principal.

Dr. Woodard spoke on the procedure for curriculum improvement and indicated some current trends in curriculum development. He urged that a thorough study of the needs and potentials of

MEDAL WILL BE AWARDED
Mary Amabile Dixon, librarian, U. S. Naval Medical School, Bethesda, Md., will be awarded the Saint Louis de Marillac medal "for outstanding personal service on behalf of her neighbor," at the annual convocation at St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, Md., Saturday, March 12, at 2:30 p.m., it was announced today.

The convocation address will be delivered by His Excellency, The Most Reverend Patrick A. O'Boyle, D.D., archbishop of Washington. Miss Carol G. Door, class of 1961, will pay tribute to Saint Louis de Marillac.

Delivers Annual
College Lecture

"A new culture, if not a new society, has grown up in the United States and in other parts of the western world. In our country it is composed of 18 million teen-agers who live in what one author has called 'Out-There Teen-land.'"

Thus Dr. Ira De A. Reid, chairman of the Haverford College sociology department, keynoted a talk today on what causes American culture to be disturbed about teen-agers. Delivered as the annual Stuckenbergl lecture in sociology at Gettysburg College, the sociologist's address was entitled "So What? What Really Matters?"

Living in a world they did not make, "eighteen million youngsters have developed a world of their own with values of their own—values of daring and imagination, idealism and individualism, skepticism and iconoclasm. And they live by them, their elders and wise parents to the contrary notwithstanding," Dr. Reid said.

The basic problem in this, however, is that these future adults are getting little guidance for the world in which they are to live, he asserted.

RED CROSS TO
DRIVE MONDAY
THRU COUNTY

With a small army of several hundred solicitors recruited and ready to begin their door-to-door canvass next Monday, the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross was ready today to launch its annual fund drive through all of the county outside of Gettysburg and its immediate rural area.

Gettysburg and its environs give to the Red Cross each year through the Community Chest.

The drive that opens Monday for $8,500 is being directed by the chapter's board of directors and with its chairman, the Rev. Charles E. Held, a patient in the Warner Hospital, Luther W. Ritter, Littlestown, chairman of the steering committee, has taken over direction of the drive.

Continues Through March
With President Eisenhower scheduled to kick off the drive in a radio and television message Sunday evening, the campaign will extend throughout March.

Scores of area captains have been chosen and a staff of solicitors has been assigned to each in one of the most completely organized county fund drives the Red Cross has undertaken here in years.

"This is the opportunity for the people of the county to support the Red Cross programs of service that continue throughout the year," Chairman Ritter said. "Hundreds of persons benefited by the Red Cross swimming classes last summer. Many stand to benefit from the first aid training, the nurses' aid service, the disaster relief service locally and nationally and from the other services that only the Red Cross makes possible.

Check Reports March 16
"If those services are to continue in the future, we must reach our goal in this finance drive," the chairman said. A report meeting of the drive captains has been called for Wednesday, March 16, (Continued On Page 3)

VFW WILL MARK
ANNIVERSARY

Plans to observe the 25th anniversary of the establishment of the local VFW post were outlined Wednesday evening at a meeting of the post in its home on E. Middle St.

Commander John E. Kerrigan was named chairman of the committee with Eugene Miller as co-chairman. John Murray, Norman Myers, Charles Buckley, Wayne Asper, Charles Moser, John Rummel, Patrick McDermitt, Robert Swisher and Bernard Lemmon as members.

The observance will be held Saturday, May 14. Further plans are to be made at a meeting March 9. Preliminary plans were also announced for the annual carnival to be held in May. John Rummel was named chairman, with Bernard Lemmon, John Murray and John E. Kerrigan members of the general committee. A nominating committee comprising Raymond Strohm, Clyde Keefe and Charles Moser was appointed to report at the March meeting.

Wayne Asper reported all Big League baseball uniforms have been returned and that "everything is ready to begin spring training."

Rodney Noel, Gettysburg R. 5, and Jack Lora, Gettysburg, were accepted as new members of the post.

Plan Red Cross Fund Drive

Members of the board of directors of the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross, who are also members of the steering committee for the county fund campaign that will open next Monday, are shown going over a county map at Red Cross headquarters on Baltimore St. Seated left to right are: Ted M. Tussing, Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, Mrs. John Eisenhower, Chairman Luther Ritter of Littlestown and Orville B. Orner; standing, Mrs. Peggy P. Hill, the chapter's executive secretary; Miss Jean Bucher, office secretary; Col. Thomas H. Allen and Col. Edwin Johnson. The Red Cross is seeking $8,500 outside the Gettysburg Community Chest area. Dr. N. Richardson
To Address League

Dr. Norman E. Richardson, head of the philosophy department at Gettysburg College, will address the Gettysburg subleague of the Woman's League of Gettysburg College, at a meeting next Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Student Union building. His topic will be "A Gettysburg Sabbath."

Henry Ackley, assistant professor of music at the college, will sing several solos accompanied by Mrs. Jacob Heikinen on the piano. He is a graduate of Western Maryland College, Westminster, and the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore. He taught at the Gilman Country School and Peabody Preparatory School. Later he was director of music of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Hanover.

In addition to teaching voice at the college he teaches history of music and musical form and analysis.

Launch Midas
"Spy In Sky"
Satellite In Tight Secrecy

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A huge rocket thundered aloft today in an attempt to boost an experimental Midas "spy in the sky" satellite into orbit. Midas' mission is to multiply warning time by detecting ballistic missiles only seconds off the launching pad.

An announcement on whether the satellite achieved orbit is expected here in about two hours, after it had had a chance to make one circle of the earth. The intended orbit for the device of more than two tons is between 100 and 200 miles high.

Midas, which stands for missile defense alarm system, is the first United States satellite launched for a purely military purpose. The Air Force has clamped a secrecy lid on most details about it.

Could Save Lives

WILL SPEAK AT
SERVICE HERE

The Rev. John S. Bishop, assistant pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, will speak at a candlelight ceremony, March 6 at 8:30 p.m., in Christ Chapel in the opening observance for Gettysburg's 25th annual alumni IFC weekend March 11-13. His topic will be "The Stature of a Man."

James Brenneman, IFC president, will read the scripture; Miss Anne Heckler, Panhellenic president, will read a Psalm and Ludwig Schlecht Jr. will offer prayer. Presidents of fraternities and sororities will carry lighted candles in a procession to the chancel for the final portion of the ceremony following the sermon.

Service Project
Pledges of all fraternities on the campus will join in a community service project at the Hoffman Orphanage the afternoons of March 7 and 9. Under the supervision of Fred Fielding, IFC vice president, the pledges will excavate a number of ditches for laying of underground utility wires.

Rev. Bishop, a graduate of Gettysburg College and Seminary, is director of Camp Nawakwa, leadership training camp of the ULCA which has an annual enrollment of 3,400 campers during the summer.

He is a member of the Black Walnut District Committee, Boy Scouts of America, Adams County Alumni Club, Adams County YNCA Board and secretary-treasurer of the Adams County Lutheran Pastors Association.

He was selected for the father-of-the-year award at Gettysburg College's homecoming last fall. He is the father of Michael Bishop, class of 1957, and Steve Bishop, class of 1960.

In college, Rev. Bishop was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Fraternity, now Sigma Nu.

FORFEIT FINES
Among those forfeiting fines recently in Westminster on motor code violation charges were: Lester E. Starnes, Gardners, $6.45, speed too great; Chester O. Wetzel, Taneytown, $6.45, failing to yield right of way; Calvin L. Amoss, Taneytown, $6.45, improper passing.

Present Playlet
At Jaycee Meeting

A study of parliamentary procedure was conducted at a meeting of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Western Maryland Railway station Thursday night. A playlet on the subject was presented.

In the essay contest high school students will write essays on the theme "My True Security" and then read the themes into a tape recorder. Final judging is from the recording.

The annual antique show will be held in August.

Officers will be nominated at the March 10 meeting.

Plans were made to study ways to work more closely with Gettysburg College in various activities.

KIMON FRIAR
TO SPEAK HERE
NEXT FRIDAY

Kimion Friar, authority on modern poetry, will speak next Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the SCA building at Gettysburg College. Dr. William K. Sundermeyer, chairman of the college lecture committee, announced today.

Friar will speak on "The Odyssey: A Modern Sequel," contemporary epic of man's search for the meaning of God by

KIMON FRIAR

Nikos Kazantzakis, the late Greek poet. He translated the sequel to Homer's classic into English verse.

Highly Recommended
The New York Times book review called the work "one of the great literary contributions of our time." Saturday Review termed it "a monument of the age," and Time devoted a cover story to it. Friar will write the scenario for a 20th-Century Fox spectacular based on the contemporary epic. He will summarize the work and include excerpts from his verse translation.

Kimion Friar is co-editor of "Modern Poetry: American and British" and former director of New York's Poetry Center. He is a graduate of the Universities of Wisconsin and Michigan, Chicago Art Institute and Yale School of the Drama. He served as professor of English at a number of universities and was named a Fulbright research scholar in Athens.

To Hold Services
Every Wednesday

Lenten services will be conducted each Wednesday noon during Lent by members of the Gettysburg Ministerium at the YWCA, it was announced today by Rev. Edwerth Korte, chaplain at Gettysburg College.

Rev. Reynolds Simmons, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, will open the series at 12:05 o'clock Ash Wednesday. Each service for seven consecutive weeks will open open at that time and close at 12:25 o'clock.

MILLER, HOWER
RE-ELECTED BY RETAIL GROUP

At the monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Retail Merchants Association at the Plaza Restaurant Tuesday, George W. Miller, manager of the Gettysburg Motor Club, was re-elected president and Frank Hower, treasurer, for the current year.

R. K. Will, manager of Murphy's store; J. Frank Sapp, manager of Coffman — Fisher Department Stores, and Gerald Bixler, owner of Six-Sway Men and Boy's Shop, were inducted into office as directors for a three-year term. Harold Wentz and Harold Reining were given a vote of thanks for their "untiring efforts in behalf of the association over a long period of years."

After all bills have been paid, the association has a balance of $951.04. The paid-up members total 55, as against 64 in 1959. The dues of the association were increased from $10 to $15 to cover the increasing cost of operation.

Discuss Parking Problems
Considerable discussion was given to the parking situation but no definite action taken. There was some thought that the half-hour parking on the streets' off the center of town is a hardship on the customer.

"The suggestion was advanced that the merchants could get together once a month at a Dutch treat dinner and discuss problems confronting them. I would be glad to have an expression from the different merchants as to how they react to the suggestion," President Miller said.

The outstanding accomplishments of the association in the last year were the Sales Days and the Christmas decorations, it was pointed out. Mr. Will has been appointed chairman of the Christmas decorating committee for this year.

BLAME SLICK
HIGHWAYS FOR 3 ACCIDENTS;
FIVE INJURED

Slippery highways Thursday afternoon led to three auto accidents in which five persons were hurt, one suffering a broken neck, and four cars demolished.

In one crash a woman driver of a pickup truck sought to stop when a school bus flashed a signal that it was preparing to halt. Her vehicle skidded and struck two parked autos.

In another a Fairfield driver stopped preparatory to making a left turn and a following tractor-trailer struck the rear of his auto and forced it into an oncoming station wagon.

In the third crash four persons were seriously injured when one auto skidded into another near the jail. Two other cars were driven into the fields to escape the crash.

Fairfield Man Hurt
Charles F. Taylor, 40, South St., Fairfield, was injured when his car was involved in a collision between a tractor-trailer and another car three-fourths of a mile west of Fairfield at 4:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Taylor, according to police, was headed toward Fairfield on the Zora Rd. followed by a tractor-trailer driven by Robert J. Tilley Jr., Fredericksburg. Taylor planned to make a left turn and halted his car to permit a westbound auto driven by Thomas Benjamin Hagerman, 66, Hagers-town, to pass.

When Taylor stopped his auto the tractor-trailer, police said, struck the Taylor car in the rear, forcing it into the path of the westbound Hagerman vehicle.

Heavy Damage
Taylor's car was completely demolished. Taylor was treated at the scene by a physician for lacerations of the forehead, right thumb and left leg and for contusions of the chest and, then was sent to the Warner Hospital for further treatment.

Damage to Hagerman's 1959 station wagon was estimated at $1,600 and damage to the truck was $50. Police are continuing their investigation.

Mrs. Beulah A. Wilson, 74, Whitings, N. J., paid a $10 fine and costs on a charge of driving too fast for conditions after her pickup truck was involved in a collision with two parked cars four miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. in Greenmount. The charge was filed by state police before (Continued On Page 3)

TELLS CWRT OF
FORT SUMTER
BOMBARDMENT

Fort Sumter, in Charleston (S. C.) harbor, whose loss by the Union marked the opening of the Civil War, served throughout the remainder of the war as a Confederate stronghold and was never captured. Dr. Frank Barnes, regional historian for the National Park Service, told the Gettysburg Civil War Round Table at its meeting Thursday evening in the GAR home.

A former park historian at Fort Sumter and author of the National Park's book on the fort said that the failure of the Union forces to recapture the fort was not for want of attempts.

35 Americans, 19 Of Whom Were Navy Musicians, Lose
Lives In Plane Collision

By MORRIS W. ROSENBERG
RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — The collision of a U.S. Navy plane and a Brazilian airliner in which 61 persons died left a tragic aftermath today to President Eisenhower's triumphal visit to Brazil.

A fleet of launches criss-crossed Guanabara Bay off Rio, seeking missing bodies of those who died in the collision in an overcast Thursday. Only 25 bodies were recovered Thursday.

Thirty-five of the dead and the only three survivors were U.S. Navy men. Among the dead were 19 leading members of the U.S. Navy's world-famed band, "the cream of the crop," coming from Buenos Aires to play a dinner Eisenhower gave Thursday night for Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek.

In Antisub Service
The survivors and seven of the dead were members of the U.S. Navy antisubmarine team which had been sent to advise the Argentine navy after a mystery submarine was reported in a gulf on the Argentine coast. No sub was found, and the team was on its way home.

Others dead in the crash were the 7 crewmen of the Navy plane, a four-engine R6D, 2 other Navy passengers, and 2 Brazilian passengers and the crew of 4 aboard the airliner.

The shocked U.S. President, who knew many members of the band, went on with the dinner for Kubitschek but cancelled a reception and a meeting with members of the U.S. Embassy staff.

President Grieves
Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty reported Eisenhower "feels terrible about this tragic accident" but planned to continue his South American tour.

Eisenhower learned of the tragedy shortly after addressing a group of business leaders at Sao Paulo, 200 miles southwest of here.

President Eisenhower Flies
To Argentina For Weekend

BUENOS AIRES (AP) — President Eisenhower launched a two-day visit to Argentina today with an expression of satisfaction that "our commitments and common aspirations provide one stone in the structure of peace."

The President's orange and silver jet, bringing him from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, touched down at Ezeiza International Airport at 8:40 a.m. EST.

He is here for a weekend visit with more emphasis on diplomatic talks than on parade. A series of bomb explosions early today in Buenos Aires was taken as an indication of efforts by Peronistas or other dissidents to embarrass the government of President Arturo Frondizi at the time of Eisenhower's visit.

Temperature Is 80
The sun broke through the overcast skies just as Eisenhower arrived. The temperature hovered around 80.

He was greeted by an orderly crowd of 5,000 including President Arturo Frondizi, who was his guest in Washington a year ago.

The press editorially hailed the visit as a historical occasion which would result in closer links between the two nations.

Eisenhower said he greeted the Argentines with genuine pleasure and satisfaction.

"I am especially happy that my visit occurs during the 150th anniversary of your nation's valiant fight for freedom. . . .

"I bring all of you the heartfelt good wishes of the government and the people of the United States, and I thank you earnestly for the cordial reception you have just accorded me and my associates. In the few days we shall be here among you, we hope to meet many of you personally, to enjoy the grandeur of your well-famed capital, to visit several other of your beautiful cities, and at least from the air, to obtain a panoramic perspective of your vast and noble country."

26 Lose Lives When Liner
Crashes Into Cemetery At
Shannon, Ireland, Airport

SHANNON, Ireland (AP) — An Italian airliner bound for New York with 52 persons aboard crashed and exploded today in a tiny Irish cemetery, scattering bodies "like a scene from hell."

Twenty-six of those aboard the Alitalia airliner were killed in the crash, and three others died after being brought to hospitals. Of the 23 survivors, many lay near death, horribly burned and broken.

The airline said 12 of the 40 passengers were Americans, but it could not say yet which if any had survived.

Crash After Takeoff
The four-engine DC7 crashed immediately after taking off from Shannon's International Airport for the Atlantic hop. It had set out from Naples, landed at Rome to pick up more passengers, and stopped in Shannon to refuel.

The airliner crashed through the wall of the cemetery, near the airport, and plowed through a line of tombstones and across a sheep pasture, leaving a mile-long trail of fire and bodies.

"There were bodies scattered all over the field," said a local priest, the Rev. Thomas Comerford. "People were mixed up with the remains of sheep the plane had killed. Most of the bodies were horribly mutilated."

Crash At 2 A.M.
"People were screaming, sheep were crying and dogs were barking. It was like a scene from hell."

The plane carried 40 passengers. Most were Italians.

The crash—at 2 a.m. within hours of an air collision in Rio de Janeiro that claimed 61 lives—brought to more than 325 the death toll in eight major plane disasters since Jan. 1.

Brendan Murray, acting manager of Shannon Airport, said the Alitalia airliner "crashed immediately after takeoff. It lifted from the ground and came down immediately." The weather was cold (Continued On Page 3)

FARM GROUPS BEGINS STUDY OF 5 PROBLEMS

Thirty-four men and women met Thursday evening at the Arendtsville Elementary School to begin a long range study designed to evaluate "where our county is, and where it is going." The 34 were members of a 50-man group which will divide into five committees for a study designed to study these problems: Taxation, youth, agricultural business and management, marketing and conservation.

County Agent Frank S. Zettle, outlining the reason for establishing the committees at the request of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association, told the committee members: "We are in a period of great change in Adams County. During the last 18 years while the population of Pennsylvania has increased 12 per cent, the population of Adams County has increased 22 per cent. We have watched the population surge in counties near us. It may well be that Adams County is going to see a greater increase in population than it has seen so far. We have seen in the last 18 years, even in the last few years, many changes in agriculture, and more are to be anticipated. We must do some study and planning now so that our growth, our changes will be of the greatest benefit to our county."

Charles Freeman, rural sociologist of Pennsylvania State University, outlined the work of the committees. "We must seek to answer six basic questions: Where are we? Where should we go? What are our problems? What are our resources? What alternatives are open? What recommendations should we make?"

Committees Lay Plans

Harry Poorbaugh, assistant director of the Pennsylvania Cooperative Extension Service, outlined experiences of similar "long range planning" committees in Pennsylvania. He concluded by offering the resources of Pennsylvania State University to the committees.

Robert C. Lott, newly-elected president of the county agricultural extension association, welcomed the committees. Howard Waybright was introduced as chairman of the project. Wesley Kriebel, local program consultant in the extension office, explained the function of the extension personnel in the undertaking.

The five committees then met separately to set up an agenda for their operations. Chairman are Joseph Stoner, East Berlin R. 2, taxation; Paul Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1, marketing; Paul Lerew, York Springs R. 1, agricultural business and management; Mrs. Mildred Rohrbach, Littlestown R. 2, youth; and Durrell E. Hess, Gettysburg, conservation. In Hess's absence Thursday the conservation committee session was led by Mr. Lott.

REV. HAMMOND TO SPEAK HERE

The Rev. Blake B. Hammond, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, Manassas, Va., will speak in Christ Chapel at Gettysburg College Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock on "The Six Greatest Words." His talk will center about three men of three different nations who each spoke two words, "the six greatest words ever spoken." Each died for saying what he did, but each is immortal, the Virginia churchman will say.

Mrs. Hammond is the former Miss Minnie Irene Colestock of New Oxford, Pa.

After more than 25 years in the ministry, Rev. Mr. Hammond assumed the Manassas pulpit following a four-year service as dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, Oklahoma City, Okla.

He earned degrees at Lehigh University and Philadelphia Divinity School. He was an All-American soccer player at Lehigh and coached soccer and lacrosse for over a decade.

Seeks Permit For Tyrone Landfill

Paul L. Plank Jr. has made written application to the supervisors of Tyrone Twp. for consent to operate a sanitary landfill on the land of Garnet Newton, Aspers R. 1.

The application followed the Thursday evening adoption by Tyrone Twp. supervisors of an ordinance prohibiting the accumulating of garbage, rubbish and other refuse materials upon private property or the dumping or otherwise depositing of garbage, rubbish and other refuse materials within the township of Tyrone without the written consent of the board of supervisors.

The Plank application or others received will be considered by the supervisors Friday, March 4, at the home of Frank L. Weigle, Gettysburg R. 4.

TROOPER RESIGNS

Sgt. Robert E. Deitrich, head of the Carlisle sub-station of the Pennsylvania State Police for the last three years, Thursday announced his retirement from the force effective March 23. Five days later he will take over the management of the Penn Jersey Detective Agency office at New Brunswick, N. J. He was once stationed in Gettysburg.

DECLARE DIVIDEND

NEW YORK—The board of directors of Duffy-Mott Company, Inc., has declared a quarterly dividend of 20 cents a share on the common stock of the company, payable April 1, 1960, to shareholders of record March 15, 1960. Since the company's fiscal year ended August 31, this will be the second quarter dividend. Quarterly dividends have been 20 cents since the company became publicly held in October, 1958. Duffy-Mott processes and distributes Mott's apple products, including two new blended fruit drinks, A.M. and P.M., Sunsweet Prune Juice and Clapp's Baby Foods.

Engagement

Messersmith-Aldinger
Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Aldinger, Seven Valleys R. 1, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Pauletta, to Dale Eugene Messersmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Messersmith, York R. 6. The bride-elect and her fiancé are graduates of Spring Grove Joint Senior High School. He is now attending Gettysburg College.

Launch Midas

planned to whirl about the earth on constant watch for enemy missile activity. They will carry infrared sensing devices to spot the heat trail of a hostile rocket as it is fired.

The warning would be flashed immediately to America, which then would have about 30 minutes to brace for nuclear bombardment and to send retaliatory weapons on the way.

The extra time to reach shelter could save thousands of lives.

To Test On Missiles

The greater certainty of a smashing counter-blow could deter an enemy.

The first Midas contains the infrared equipment. The plan is to test it on missiles launched from Cape Canaveral and Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif.

This satellite, fired not far off the line of the equator, is not scheduled to fly over Soviet territory.

When operational Midas satellites are launched into polar orbit, probably in 1961, they will pass over all of Russia. That is almost certain to bring objections in the absence of an international agreement permitting such missions.

The United States has proposed an "open skies" pact that would permit this country and Russia to make reconnaissance flights over each other's territory. The Soviets have not accepted the idea. They reportedly are working on spy satellites of their own.

TO HELP FORM STATE REPORT

A number of Adams Countians will participate next Thursday in what has been described as "a full-dress rehearsal for the state's part in the National White House Conference on Children and Youth."

More than 1,000 Pennsylvanians are expected to be in Harrisburg March 3 for the session that will "bring to a climax the Commonwealth's preparation for this event — preparation that has involved 25,000 persons and produced reports of exhaustive study by 58 counties, according to the chairman of the state White House Conference committee, Robert C. Taber.

Among local representatives are Miss Joyce Starry, Mrs. Gordon Webster, Mrs. M. Hardy Nichols, Miss N. Louise Ramer, Dr. Frederick Wentz, Atty. John A. MacPhail and Dr. Joseph H. Riley.

At next Thursday's session Gov. David L. Lawrence will speak, as will Ruth Grigg Horting, state Department of Welfare secretary; Mrs. Isabella J. Jones, associate director of the White House Conference, and Judge Mary C. Kohler.

The 1,000 will then divide into 68 groups to go over the reports

PRODUCTION OF PAPER RUNS AT FULL TILT

By SHEPHERD CAMPBELL
AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The 12-billion-dollar paper industry—one of the nation's 10 biggest—turns into the 60s running at full tilt but a bit anxious about fresh competitors.

Paper company executives, in formal speeches and informal interviews at the industry's convention this week, generally were hopeful about high production, hesitant about profits and slightly harassed about threats from rival products and foreign producers.

In all, 5,000 paper men were gathered for the 83rd annual meeting of the American Paper & Pulp Assn. (APPA). For five days, they thrashed out the industry's prospects and problems during business meetings and casual chats.

Various Leader Views

Here's how some of the industry's leaders at the convention sized up the outlook for paper producers:

Howard E. Whitaker, new APPA president and chairman of Mead Corp.: "We had a big production year in 1959 and it looks like 1960 is going to be even better. It's true we're not earning as much as we should be earning. But we're hopeful of improving profits. That is our job and we're going to do it."

Look To Future

John R. Kimberly, retiring APPA president and chairman of Kimberly-Clark Corp.: "We enter 1960 with some cause for optimism. But we must recognize that in the years ahead we've got competitive situations not only internally but externally. The job we've to do is have a receptive area for innovation, change and improvement."

David L. Luke, president of West Virginia Pulp & Paper Co.: "Increases in projected capacity now make it look like we will operate in a vigorously competitive atmosphere far into the future. Imports of pulp and paper certainly aggravate our highly competitive situation."

BULLETINS

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—An unidentified woman told the Rocky Mountain News by telephone Thursday that Adolph Coors III may be killed unless the FBI withdraws from the case, the newspaper said today.

Coors, 44, is the millionaire chairman of the Adolph Coors Co. at Golden. He disappeared Feb. 9.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Southerners today adopted a new tactic—delaying hearings on an appropriation bill in the bitter Senate battle over the civil rights legislation.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate rackets committee said today it saw a "potential threat to freedom of the press" in payoffs allegedly exacted by racketeers from some metropolitan newspapers and big publishing and distributing firms.

The statement was included in a report to the Senate on the committee's 1959 investigation of alleged labor racketeering in the racketeering in the wholesale delivery of newspapers, magazines and newspaper Sunday supplements.

from the 58 county committees to determine the recommendations which Pennsylvania's official delegates will take to the White House Conference in Washington March 27.

Ike Offers South America An "Elusive Duck"; Savings

By BEM PRICE
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has promised South America a duck dinner — if the United States can catch a very elusive duck.

That seems to be a pretty fair summary of what President Eisenhower has offered our neighbors to the south on his current, four-nation goodwill tour.

To be more precise the President said:

Permission For Renewal
"Permit me to renew this pledge, which I have made repeatedly: the United States stands ready . . . to devote a substantial portion of the savings made possible by disarmament to vast constructive programs of peaceful developments."

But such savings, like the duck, may be hard to come by.

Eisenhower made the offer in Brazil where President Juscelino Kubitschek proposed a sort of Inter-American self-help plan called "operation Pan-America" in a speech in May 1958.

Nine-nation Pact
Under this plan nine nations would pool resources and technical skills to attack the problems of economic underdevelopment.

The President said the United States was joining Brazil in urging an Inter-American meeting to "accelerate the formulation of specific projects needed to translate this plan into a working reality." But any money the United States supplies probably will have to come from other sources.

In any case, wise South Americans probably aren't looking forward to tapping Uncle Sam's disarmament savings account any time in the very near future.

Disarmament Deadlock

The United States and the Soviet Union have been talking disarmament off and on since 1955. Since November 1958 this nation, the Soviet Union and Great Britain have been talking unsuccessfully about a nuclear test ban.

There is another East-West disarmament conference scheduled for March 15 in Geneva.

At last report the Western allies — the United States, Britain, France, Canada and Italy — were having difficulty in working out a single disarmament agreement among themselves.

Nations Are Friends
And, mind you, these nations are friends. Each of the Western nations may take its own plan into the meeting with the Soviets and the latter's satellites, Bulgaria, Poland, Czechoslovakia and Romania.

If you want to assume that by some miracle there is an East-West agreement in March, or any month in 1960, that will only be the beginning.

The United States concedes that a disarmament agreement would be ineffective unless Red China concurred. But Red China hasn't been invited.

GIVE CHARTER TO FAIRFIELD CUB PACK 76

Charles Lott, representing the Lions Club, accepted a charter presented to Fairfield Cub Scout Pack 76 by Scout Commissioner Kermit Spence at a Blue and Gold banquet Thursday evening at the Fairfield High School cafeteria. Awards to Scouts and gifts to den mothers were also made at the banquet attended by 125 persons. David Summers, James Hammett, Gregory Miller, James Miller and Dennis Baltzley received Bobcat awards; John McGlaughlin received a Gold and Silver Arrow award; Charles Carbaugh, William Hartman, Andrew Slagle, Stephen Newman and Richard Polley received Bear Badge Awards; Tommy Koons, Stephen Newman, William Hartman and Richard Polley received Gold Arrow Awards and Lynn Newman received the Lion Gold and Silver Award.

Honor Den Mothers
Among the den mothers honored were: Lela Weikert, Mary Reindollar, Katherine Spence, Dorothy Newman, Esther Mae Crist, Sara Miller, Marie Koon, Helen Koon, Janet Micklely and Ann Barkley. Registration certificates were presented to members of the administration.

Stanley Rogers, Boy Scout executive of the Black Walnut District, spoke on scouting and the significance of the Scouts' 50th anniversary.

A welcome was extended by Cubmaster Carl Filsinger. The invocation was given by the Rev. Otto Kroeger and the closing prayer by the Rev. Lamont Woelk. Entertainment was provided by Edward Cashmore, Fairfield school instructor, who is a ventriloquist-magician. Each den mother decorated a table and a cake was baked and served by Mrs. Fred Slagle.

The committee will meet Thursday evening, March 10, at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lela Willett. The pack will meet Thursday, March 24, at St. Mary's Grove Hall and will hold a paper drive Saturday afternoon. It is requested the paper be bundled and tied.

Senator Report Scores Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Labor-Management Committee today pictured Teamsters Union President James R. Hoffa as displaying a "contemptuous attitude toward the U. S. Senate and all law and order."

It pinned the charge in part to Hoffa's creation of a purported antiracketeering commission with the announced purpose of driving corruption from the union.

"From the evidence, the committee can only conclude that this commission was formed merely for purposes of deception—to conceal from the committee, the courts and the public generally Hoffa's dependence on and obligations to these (racketeer) elements," the report said.

Hoffa named former Sen. George H. Bender (R-Ohio) to head the three-man commission. Bender since has resigned from the post.

TANK EXPLODES

BROWNSVILLE, Tex. (AP)—A 10,000-gallon petroleum storage tank exploded and burned at Port Brownville today, critically burning two men.

The fire-explosion was on a tank farm about five miles from Brownsville.

Hospitalized with critical burns, officers reported, were John B. Conway and Clemente Lopez, both of Brownsville.

of the Chest more in terms of its six member agencies."

The auditing committee report was presented by its chairman, Harold Ecker.

Discuss Fall Plans

The new president announced there will be a meeting of the board in April or May and began a discussion of plans for the drive this fall. "This is no longer an affair for amateurs," he said and pointed out that the professional assistance secured for the last two years had "paid off well."

Noting that the Gettysburg Chest drive was one of the first nine in the state to reach its goal, he indicated areas in which more effort should be devoted this year. One area is in encouraging group solicitations in business. It was noted that Metropolitan Edison Company employees here give one per cent an hour from their wages for the Chest.

Dean Tülsberg cleared with the Chest board the plans for a membership drive throughout the county, including Gettysburg, for the Friends of the Library.

Reports showed $2,886 yet to be paid in pledges on last fall's drive and $336 owing from the preceding drive.

Nineteen board members and agency representatives attended the annual session.

CURRICULUM

the student population precede curriculum change. The community should be involved in determining the goals or objectives for the curriculum of the school, but the primary responsibility is laid upon the professional staff, he said.

In the sectional meetings it was decided that the following recommendations should be made with regard to curriculum change: Homogeneous grouping at the Junior High level based primarily upon previous achievement in various subject areas; a basic general program of education should be offered through the Ninth grade with the present policy of permitting students to make a choice of academic, commercial or vocation tracks being postponed until the beginning of Grade 10; and teachers in the elementary grades should remain with the same class for at least two years with the suggestion that this program be conducted on a voluntary basis.

Another meeting will be held March 28 to consider these matters further.

The workshop was followed by a meeting of the local PSEA unit conducted by the president, Curvin Smith.

2 CRITICALLY HURT IN FIRE RESCUE WORK

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A fire swept a three-story apartment house Thursday night, killing nine-year-old Linda Gibson. Her mother and aunt were critically injured when they fell to the street while helping rescue seven other children.

The mother, Mrs. Rena Gibson, 25, was injured when she lost her balance at a second floor window where she was relaying the children to her husband, Mack, who was standing on an adjacent roof extension.

Mrs. Catherine Gilchrist, 23, Linda's aunt and mother of two small children who were rescued fell from a ledge while helping save them.

The children were treated for burns and cuts.

Firemen said the blaze broke out in the Gibson's third-floor apartment.

Cause was not immediately determined.

PROPOSE UNIFORM RATES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eight Catholic hospitals have proposed uniform charges for all patients in a move to break the long contract dispute with Blue Cross.

Blue Cross had objected to the disparity in rates charged by various hospitals in this area, both Catholic and Non-Catholic.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Three prominent city Democrats said today they were organizing a committee to support Adlai Stevenson for the party's presidential nomination this year.

Members of the Kappa Delta Rho fraternity of Gettysburg College and the Gettysburg Fire Department have been presented with Citations of Merit by the Pennsylvania unit of the Muscular Dystrophy Association of America for their part in the annual muscular dystrophy campaign. The third patrol of Girl Scout Troop 31 presented a skit at a meeting Wednesday afternoon in the Bendersville Lutheran Church in observance of Thinking Day. Those participating were: Dorothy Davis, "How Thinking Day Came About," and Elaine Gochaneur, Lorna Brough, Carolyn Black and Sue Slaybaugh.

The following countries were represented by the following girls:

Australia, Susan Kime; Brazil, Nancy Koontz; Great Britain, Nancy Wright; India, Dorothy Davis; Israel, Ann Carey; Lebanon, Judy Routsong; Norway, Kay Bodenbergh; Philippine Islands, Patricia Thomas, and the United States, Cheryl Fetteris.

Charlene Thompson presented a skit for the child care badge, assisted by Allona Winand.

Leaders present were Mrs. Marvin L. Fox, Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. Ruth Horick and senior aide, Sarah L. Fox.

KEY STOCKS ADVANCE

NEW YORK (AP)—Electronics were in demand as the stock market moved moderately higher in fairly active trading early this afternoon.

Key stocks advanced from fractions to a point or so. The "science" stocks made wider gains, ranging from 1 to about 3 points.

Steels, nonferrous metals, building materials, aircrafts, rubbers and airlines were generally higher. Rails, oils, chemicals, tobacco and electrical equipments were mixed.

RED CROSS TO

to check on progress being made throughout the county.

"Besides the services rendered locally in emergency needs for civilians and ex-servicemen, alike, our solicitors can tell the people of the county about the $9 million dollar disaster relief program the American Red Cross carried on in the last year. More than 2,000,000 pints of blood were collected and distributed free to meet disaster or emergency needs. On the average last year the Red Cross aided more than 86,000 servicemen each month and 94,000 families of servicemen through the home service division. Thousands of veterans were helped. 58,000 first aid courses given. 124,000 courses in water safety were given and almost a million and a half certificates in water safety were awarded.

"Much of the work of the Red Cross is carried on by volunteers and the salaries of paid workers are set by the volunteers in the Red Cross organization. There are 146 volunteers giving their service for every paid staff member," Ritter pointed out.

forces fired 3,500 tons of shells into the fort and reduced the buildings to a rubble. But the Confederates burrowed deeper and held the fort against further efforts to recapture it. It underwent three major bombardments and almost continuous shelling in between. But the garrison did not surrender until the other Confederate forces had dipped their colors.

Used Parrot Gun

During the course of the Union attempts to retake the fort, two 13-inch mortars were brought in to fire upon it, and one 30-pounder Parrot fired 4,200 rounds.

Fort Sumter was famed not only for the first shot fired during the Civil War but its bombardment marked the first use of searchlights in a war. Calcium lights were used to illuminate the scene during the first bombardment and then were used by the Confederates on the fort to discourage attempts to land troops.

Charleston Harbor, Dr. Barnes said, was also the scene of an amphibious attack much similar to the one at Iwo Jima in World War II.

Morris Island, near Fort Sumter, is a low lying island about four miles long and about a mile in width. In August-September, 1863 General Quincy A. Gilmore, of Ohio, whose troops were besieging Fort Sumter and Charleston, decided to take it. It required 58 days, 13,000 troops.

Who Fired First Shot

Dr. Barnes said, "There is a lot of controversy over who fired the first shot against the fort." He said much evidence favors the claim of Edmund Ruffin, of Virginia, who at the end of the war, rather than live "under the Yankees," committed suicide.

The first Union shot was fired after the bombardment had continued for three hours, Dr. Barnes said. The credit for firing the first Union shot against the Confederacy went to then Captain Abner Doubleday, who as General Abner Doubleday is famed both for his services at Gettysburg and as the "founder of baseball."

Among the Union soldiers who fought against the Confederacy was Lt. Richard K. Mead. Later, when Virginia, his native state, left the Union, he resigned his commission and joined the Confederate forces.

BURY MRS. FITZE

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma J. (Yingling) Fitze, Silver Run, widow of Paul L. Fitze, who died at her home on Tuesday, were conducted this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. Christopher J. Noss, pastor of St. Mary's United Church of Christ, Silver Run, and the Rev. Dr. Ed. Silver R. Hamme, Union Mills, officiated. Interment was in St. Mary's Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were six nephews: John, Walter, Allen and Irvin Boese, Earl Warner and Calvin Fitze.

Hear Blast 17 Miles

People heard the terrific explosion 17 miles away.

"It seemed as if the petrol (gasoline) tank must have gone up with devastating force," said one of the first persons to reach the scene. "How anyone survived is a miracle."

Airport officials said some of the dead were found more than a mile away on the mud flats at the mouth of the storied Shannon River. The confusion made it difficult to get a complete account of casualties.

A spokesman for Alitalia in New York said the fatalities were the first passenger deaths in the history of the airline, which was founded in 1947. The airline sent a planeload of officials and technicians from Rome to seek the cause of the crash.

BLAME SLICK

Justice of the Peace John Whitman.

According to police, Mrs. Wilson was driving north with her husband as a passenger in the pickup truck when she saw a southbound school bus approaching. The bus, which was preparing to stop to discharge passengers, flashed its large stop signal. Mrs. Wilson braked and her pickup truck skidded off the highway striking parked autos of Lester Wherley, 61, Gettysburg R. 2, and his son, James E. Wherley. Damage was estimated at $75 to the truck, $40 to Lester Wherley's auto and $25 to James Wherley's sedan.

Police were able to complete quickly their investigation of the accident. One of the local officers on patrol was following the school bus and witnessed the crash.

Both cars were demolished in the accident near the jail on the Biglerville Rd. at 12:40 o'clock Thursday afternoon, state police reported. All four occupants of the cars were injured. Police said Frank M. Wolfe, Gardner's R. 2, was driving south when his car skidded on the highway and struck a northbound car driven by Mrs. Elizabeth Geyer, 38, Table Rock Rd. Attendants at the jail, whose attention was drawn by the noise of the crash, said two other autos drove into the field beside the road to avoid the accident when they came on the scene and found their cars also skidding as they sought to slow the vehicles.

Wolfe suffered internal injuries. Reba Riley, 50, Gardner's R. 2, a passenger in Wolfe's car, suffered a broken neck, a laceration of the forehead and a compound fracture of the right leg. Her condition was described as "serious."

schek sent messages of sympathy to the families of those killed in the crash and hurried to Miguel Couto Hospital to visit the three survivors as soon as they returned from Sao Paulo.

Visit Survivors

The two Presidents stopped at the bed of each of the men, gave each a sympathetic pat and expressed wishes for their speedy recovery. Although the men were in shock and under heavy sedation, they recognized Eisenhower.

Robert Hartman, chief of the Washington bureau of the Los Angeles Times, accompanied the two leaders as representative of all newsmen traveling with Eisenhower.

Hartman said Eisenhower's voice almost broke as he spoke to the men. He remarked at one point, "This surely is a tragic thing."

Both Presidents ordered their staffs to keep them in close touch with developments in the investigation of the collision.

Had Different Levels

The survivors were Snarman 2C Frederick E. Wilson of Dallas, Tex.; Aviation Ordnanceman 1C H. R. Halenka of Norfolk, Va.; and Lt. (jg) G. P. Fuzgib, bonus of Worcester, Mass.

The U.S. Embassy said the Navy plane coming from Buenos Aires was scheduled to fly at 6,000 feet and land at Gaoan Airport, on an island in the bay. The two-engine Real airliner, which was coming from Vitoria, north of Rio de Janeiro, was scheduled to fly at 5,000 feet for a landing at Santos Dumont Airport, a few miles from Gaoan.

The planes collided and broke in pieces near Sugar Loaf Mountain, at the entrance to the bay, one of the city's landmarks. Residents of seashore apartments looked on in horror as the wreckage plunged into the bay.

SELL TWO PROPERTIES

Deeds have been filed in the office of the register and recorder for the following property transfers:

Today's Talk

A GENTLEMAN
Sometimes we forget that there are a great many gentlemen in the world. But there are — a very great many. Like everything rare and fine, however, they have to be sought after and brought out.

I do not always know a gentleman when I see him, but I always know one when I FEEL him. There is a texture of soul to the real gentleman that responds to the feel — as when the fingers feel fine silk or fabric. One knows something very wonderful is there.

A gentleman is always a silent force — free from all glamour. He moves smoothly along his way. He is never ruffled. He is never afraid. He is quite unconcerned with all the many confusions that try to thwart him from his way.

A gentleman is a gentle man — but never weak. Gentleness is never a quality of weakness, but of strength. Gentleness is inspired by thoughtfulness, and thoughtfulness is inspired by control. To be self-controlled is to be strong!

A gentleman radiates all that he is. He conserves by giving. Always unobtrusive, yet he is always free and ready to serve. A gentleman is no recluse. His is a life in the world among men and with men.

If you would know a gentleman when you see him, know the things that signify his heart: You always want him around. Children trust him. Women admire him. Men form a league with him. Nature opens a path for his footsteps, and every day in history is honored by his presence.

A gentleman is a friend de luxe.

THE LIMIT OF BRAVERY
Although he's not a hero, he has courage without doubt; In times of war he's always at the front; He stormed the hill at San Juan, and put the foe to rout, And gallantly he bore the battle's brunt.

He has traveled o'er the regions of Alaska's icy plains, And he has safely passed through Africa's burning sands; He will never shirk a trial, no matter what the pains, So long as it is duty that commands.

One day, while he was walking through a crowded street at home, He stopped a frightened horse's mad career; Another time he saved a life, by risking of his own, For he doesn't know the meaning of "to fear."

I say he's not a hero, for he never has gained fame, Though he certainly deserves a laurel wreath; For the only time he ever quailed in any kind of game Was when the dentist tried to fill his teeth.

Two Hundred Fifty-Six Donate Blood Here On Friday: Topping by almost 100 points the best previous records for the Gettysburg blood donor station and taxing to the fullest extent the facilities of the Red Cross mobile unit which came here from Harrisburg, Adams Countians gave 256 pints of blood in a six-hour period Monday afternoon.

The donations brought to 2,867 the total number of pints of blood collected here since the first station was opened in January, 1943. Monday was Gettysburg's 22nd blood donation day.

Most of the donors were from "service flag" families and about 150 of the men and women gave their blood to honor a friend or a member of their family serving overseas in the armed forces.

Fourteen started their second gallon in making their donation of blood Monday. The group starting their second gallon with their donation included: Mrs. Harry Lower, Raymond O. Arnold, Mrs. Ernest Brindie, George Bushman, John W. Deardorff Sr., W. A. Dillman, Glenn Kennedy, Francis Knox Jr., Hunter Harness, Fred Hummelbaugh, Miss Hilda Glenn, Mrs. C. C. Enemann, Mrs. Charles Rosensteel and Mrs. Edgar W. Weaver.

IDENTIFY DEAD IN PIKE CRASH

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A three-truck smashup killed three persons and injured two others on the ice-covered Pennsylvania Turnpike about 20 miles north of Pittsburgh Thursday.

Dead are L. J. Higgins, 42, of Anderson, S. C.; Alfred E. Boyd, 36, and his son, Adrian Boyd, 35, both of East Prairie, Mo.

John J. Burger, 44, of Levittown, Pa., was reported in critical condition in New Kensington's Citizens General Hospital. He suffered multiple injuries, including the loss of one leg.

Dale Royal, 36, of Greenville, S. C., suffered minor injuries. State police said Royal's west-bound truck skidded across the median strip, crashing into the truck occupied by the Boyds. Burger's truck, following the Boyd vehicle, smashed into the wreckage.

Higgins was a passenger in the truck driven by Royal.

The wreck, one mile east of the Perry Interchange, tied up traffic for several hours.

DOG'S TRICKS IN COURT

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A dog did some tricks and 11-year-old Johnny Hay Clark went home with a broken heart Thursday.

The happy world he had known for six months with a flop-eared beagle hound named Bruno fell apart in a Dallas courtroom.

Justice of Peace W. E. Richburg, bound by the weight of evidence, ordered Bruno restored to Dr. Howard H. McClure Jr., who claimed ownership.

D. C. Howard, grandfather of the schoolboy, testified the dog, lean and starved, showed up last September on his farm, 70 miles northeast of Dallas. He brought the dog to Dallas for Johnny.

McClure spotted Bruno in the Howard yard five days ago and claimed him.

Can you prove this is your dog? Does he know any tricks? Richburg asked McClure.

The doctor gave a series of routine dog trick commands. Bruno obeyed.

Judge Convinced
McClure produced a piece of dog candy. He put the tidbit on the dog's nose and ordered Bruno to toss it in the air and catch it in his mouth. Bruno complied.

Richburg was convinced. At his suggestion, McClure paid the grandfather $35 for the dog's keep. Tears streaking his face, Johnny gave Bruno a tender hug—and walked quietly from the courtroom hand in hand with his grandfather.

Claim Theses, Term Papers Written By Ghost-Writers

NEW YORK (AP)—The district attorney's office has seized the books of four ghost-writing agencies in a probe of charges that college students and professors have had theses and term papers written for them for a fee.

After gathering up the records of the four unidentified agencies Thursday, Dist. Atty. Frank S. Hogan said the investigation started about three weeks ago on information from the New York World-Telegram and Sun.

Alex Benson, 32, a staff writer for the newspaper, began an investigation two months ago posing as a ghost writer. His activities were known to Hogan, the newspaper said, and the money Benson earned was turned over to the district attorney.

Benson said his investigation disclosed:

Pay Up To $3,000
Cheating scholars pay up to $3,000 to agencies for writing theses necessary for doctorates, and smaller amounts for master's theses.

College students pay from $50 to $350 for ghost-written term papers.

Girl Wounded As She Watches TV

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A bullet passed through a gopher, a wood fence, a house wall and a sofa before lodging in the back of a 4-year-old girl.

Donna J. Sword was watching television when the bullet hit her Thursday.

Surgeons removed the bullet. She is in fair condition.

Douglas J. Beane, 24, a neighbor, told investigators he had shot a .30 caliber rifle at the gopher, killing the animal. He was released after questioning.

Fast Draw Kills Man's Neighbor

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—A pistol shot fired through an apartment wall killed Walter R. Jones, 21, while he ate supper Thursday night.

Police said a .22 caliber bullet struck the youth in the chest.

They released on his own recognition a neighbor, Bobby Jackson, 23, who gave officers a written statement saying his pistol discharged while he was placing it back in its holster. Jackson said he had been practicing a "fast draw."

Here's a rundown of the top Class A contenders:

Surprise Entry
In Dist. 1, Abington (Suburban I), Ridley Twp (Sub II), Radnor (Sub III), Leaden (Sub IV), Springfield Twp (Sub V), and the Ches-Mont titlist—either West Chester or Coatesville—all present strong contenders.

Abington was a surprise entry. It upset Haverford, 1958 state champion, Tuesday 53-50 to win the Suburban I title, its first after 26 years.

In Dist. 3, Chambersburg, South Penn leader, and York Central Penn frontrunner, are the top choices although they still have to win their league crowns. There will be three or four other contenders.

Unbeaten Catasqua and Mahanoy area, with 24 and 20 victories respectively, head the list of Dist. 11 contenders. Wilson Boro and the East Penn winner—Hazleton and Bethlehem play tonight for that crown—also are front-ranked.

Nanticoke unbeaten in 22 games, is favored in Dist. 2. The Lackawanna League entry is a puzzle with Scranton Central, Scranton Tech and Cambodene, the first half champ, vying for second half honors. Swoyersville, Northwest and Plains are other contenders.

Shamokin, defending Dist. 3 champ, appears the best bet of any district hopeful. If anything works against the Greyhounds it will be illness. They completed their season early in February. The contenders include Danville of the Susquehanna and Sayre of the Roosevelt Trail.

Farrell Is Ready
West
Defending state champion Farrell is ready for the next phase of its title defense. The crucial WPAL playoffs. If the Steelers can get by such as unbeaten Uniontown (23 games) and Springdale (which handed Farrell its only defeat of the season), it looks like a clear road ahead to the state final.

Altoona, favored to repeat in Dist. 6, looms as the only threat to the WPAL champion for western Class A honors. Farrell beat Altoona earlier this season in exhibition.

Altoona's rivals in its district are, of the moment, Windber, Johnstown and Northern Cambria. The Central States, West Central, Mountain and Indiana County league championships are still wide open.

The next best Class A team probably will come from Dist. 10 where Sharpville is a slight favorite over Meadville and either Erie Tech or defending district champion Erie Strong Vincent.

DuBois, bidding to repeat as Dist. 9 titlist, plays the clunker tonight at Bradford. If DuBois wins, it's a virtual shoo-in for the crown. If it loses, it will probably have to meet Punxsutawney in a playoff.

In Dist. 8—the city of Pittsburgh—Fifth Avenue, South Hills and Oliver are the contenders for the title. A decision won't come before March 11.

The other western district involved is Dist. 5, where Somerset clinched the Class A title last week. The Golden Eagles would have to improve considerably on their season performance to go anywhere in the interdistrict playoffs.

ST. JOHN'S, NYU BEAT TEMPLE, MANHATTAN

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

New York basketball, which has been streaking mostly toward oblivion since the 1950 scandals, has come up with a couple of late-season dandies just in time for the NCAA and National Invitation Tournaments.

That would be St. John's, Joe Lapchick's underdog champ of the NIT a year ago, and New York University, building toward those old-time Violet dynasties under new coach Lou Rossini.

The Johnnies ran their winning streak to 11 and their record to 17-5 Thursday night with an 80-63 win over Manhattan. The victory climaxed a Madison Square Garden doubleheader and followed NYU's fifth straight victory and 16th in 19 starts, 76-70 over Temple.

N.C. Moves Up
While the Redmen and Violets were at it, North Carolina moved within one game of a first place tie in the Atlantic Coast Conference, West Virginia opened defense of its Southern Conference tournament title, and Utah and Utah State remained tied in the important Skyline Conference race.

North Carolina spilled Virginia to its 14th straight loss 97-38. West Virginia, champ of the Southern last five years, began its tournament doings at Richmond with a 90-83 victory over VMI as All-America Jerry West scored 29 points and Willie Akers 21.

Fifth-ranked Utah, running its winning streak to 10, whipped Brigham Young 87-75 and eighth-ranked Utah State thumped Montana 89-63 in their Skyline duel.

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Luke Appling watched the rain bang against the clubhouse window. He shivered.

"I feel awful," he moaned, "I got aches and pains all over."

"That's great, Luke," said Detroit Manager Jimmy Dykes, sitting nearby. "If you keep feeling this way, we ought to have a terrific season."

Dykes Recommends Hiring
Dykes recommended the hiring of Appling as Tiger coach this past winter. Appling was Jimmy's star shortstop when he managed the Chicago White Sox from 1934 to 1946.

"The time to worry is when Ol' Aches 'n' Pains here says he feeling fine," explained Dykes. "As soon as he starts to complain, then you know everything's all right. The year (1936) he hit .388 to lead the American League in hitting, he was always on the rubbing table, went to bed with a hot water bottle and was telling everybody how bad he felt."

Appling, who, among other things, used to complain of double vision, had one of the sharpest pair of eyes in baseball. He was the greatest at fouling off pitches until he found one to his particular liking.

An Effective Device
That used to get rival hurlers not only fatigued but fighting mad. Among his pet patsies was Dr. Zyr, then with the Tigers.

"I once fouled off 10 or 12 straight pitches against Trout," the Southern-born Appling recalled. "Ol' Diz was gettin' madder with each pitch."

"Finally he screamed at me, 'You so-and-so, let's see you foul this off! He wound up and threw his glove I swung and darned if I didn't foul that off, too."

"Diz was fit to be tied but he really blew his top when Bill Summers umpiring behind the plate, threw him out of the game for throwin' his glove."

Yankies Try For More Gold Medals In Olympics Today

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Uncle Sam's nieces and nephews went prospecting for gold medals today with time running short in the 1960 Winter Olympic Games and Carol Heiss this nation's only winner to date.

The surprising U.S. hockey team that upset favored Canada 2-1 to grab the lead in the round-robin competition got the day off.

The Soviet Union, with six gold medals and 137 unofficial points credited, was expected to pick up more in both the women's 15 kilometer (9.3 miles) relay and the men's 1,500 meter speed skating. The United States had its biggest chances in the other two events.

Girls Disappoint
Penny Pitou with two silver medals, took her final shot at a gold one in the women's slalom ski race already virtually assured of winning the world combined title of the International Ski Federation (FIS).

The pony-tailed blonde from Gilford, N.H., leads the U.S. girls' team that so far hasn't come up to the pre-Olympic predictions.

Dave Jenkins, 23, the Western Reserve University medical student, goes out for the free-skating wrapup of the men's figure skating championships trailing Czechoslovakia's Karel Divin after the compulsory figures competition.

Germany Second
It was in figure skating that Miss Heiss, of Ozone Park, N.Y., won her crown.

Jenkins scored 775.2 in compulsory figures that count 60 percent toward the final score. Divin had 797.7 and France's Alain Gilet 761.7. Don Jackson of Canada scored 751.4 and Tim Brown of Sacramento, Calif., 748.9.

In the unofficial team scores, Germany held second place with 52½ with the United States at 44 and Sweden 42.

Thursday's biggest surprise came when the underdog Yankee hockey team stood off the Canadians as goalie Jack McCartan, former University of Minnesota star, came up with 39 stops. Teammates B. Cleary and Paul Johnson scored for the winners and Jim Connelly for the Canadians.

Have 3-0 Record
The victory gave the United States a 3-0 record while the Soviet Union, tied on Wednesday with Sweden, swamped Germany 7-1 for a 2-0 record. That sets up Saturday's meeting between the challenging United States and the Soviet's defending Olympic champions.

Finland's 35-year-old veteran Veikko Hakulinen rallied on the anchor lap of the four-man, 40-

Give Hunter Slim Edge Over Machen
NEW YORK (AP)—Billy Hunter, the sweet swinger from Detroit, is an 11-10 favorite to defeat Eddie Machen, one-time top ranked challenger, in their 10-round heavyweight bout tonight in Madison Square Garden.

Although Machen is ranked No. 5 and Hunter No. 7 in the latest National Boxing Assn. ratings, the odds makers apparently are being swayed by the fighters' most recent efforts. Hunter is unbeaten in his last four starts while Machen, from Redding, Calif., dropped a 12-round decision to Zora Folley Jan. 18, his last time out.

The bout will be broadcast and telecast via NBC starting at 10 p.m. Scoring will be by rounds with a supplementary points system in use to help break draws.

Trojans Tounce Warriors 61-44 In Final Game And Win Eleventh League Title

Chambersburg High clinched the overall championship of the South Penn Basketball League by crushing the Gettysburg High Warriors 61-44 Thursday evening on the Trojans' floor in the final league game of the season.

It is the 11th league title captured by the Franklin Countians since their first title was gained in 1944. They succeed Carlisle who had won the title the last two seasons. Chambersburg won both halves of the league with perfect 5-0 records. The Trojans now have a 15-game winning streak.

Coach George Forney's outfit gave the Trojans a scare in the first period Chambersburg, displaying unusual keen shooting, raced off to a 13-4 lead in the first 30 minutes of play and appeared well on the way to a top-sided triumph.

11-Point Spree
After a time out, the Warriors came surging back on a run of 11 points via a goal by Hardy Nichols, a drive-in by Captain Mike Small, another lay-up by Nichols, a corner shot by Bob Lurney and an easy lay up by Greg Matland following Nichols' steal. That spree gave the Forney men their only lead at 15-13. Just before the period ended Leon Rideout landed a goal to knot the score at 15-15.

Chambersburg added seven more points early in the second period on a goal by Tom Weitz, two fouls by John Walker and a three-pointer by Rideout before Forney tallied on a side toss for Gettysburg. From then on the closest Gettysburg could get to their opponents was six points. At half time the Trojans led 32-23.

The teams played on even terms in the third period with the Trojans holding their advantage. Midway in the period Gettysburg cut the lead to 37-31. With two minutes left Chambersburg led 45-33 but the scrappy Warriors fought back on a pair of goals by Nichols and a foul by Small.

Warriors Collapse
Rideout, Schlichter and Walker erased all doubt as to the final outcome when they sent their team ahead 59-40 with but 1:20 minutes left in the final quarter. Roger Ecker's goal being the lone Warrior tally during the first 6-40 minutes.

Nichols was top-point man for Gettysburg with 15 tallies and Small followed with 10. Jim Schlichter and Rideout led the Trojans with 20 and 18.

Despite the defeat the Warriors' overall season record of 11-7 is their best in seven years. They had an overall league mark of 6-4. Chambersburg has a nonleague engagement at Shippensburg Tuesday before entering the District Three Class A playoffs on Saturday, March 5, when it tangles with Spring Grove on the Camp Curtin Junior High floor.

Jayvees Beaten
The Gettysburg reserves faded in the last half in losing the preliminary Thursday 47-36. At half time the locals trailed only 15-14 but could not match the well-rounded Chambersburg attack in the last two periods. Tom Duane pumped through 16 points for Coach Mark Eckhart's outfit who wound up with a 5-12 record.

Winners Of Five Tournament
Now he already has won $3,005.75 in five tournaments this winter. Thursday his hot-putting 4-under-par 64 gave him a 3-stroke lead in the Texas Open.

He credited a putter given him by Fred Hawkins, a fellow professional from El Paso, with his surprise.

Stranahan shot eight birdie holes where he sank putts of 6 to 40 feet. He played with Hawkins, who had a 73 and probably wondered why that putter hadn't done the same for him.

Love In Second
As the field of 151 moved out over the 6,729-yard Ft. Sam Houston course, Davis Love Jr., of El Dorado, Ark., was in second place with a 67.

Freezing weather greeted players starting the tournament Thursday morning. The greens were frozen and had to be thawed with water. Temperatures were over 40 degrees at the close.

CO-ED RESERVES BOW
The Gettysburg College girls' junior varsity basketball team lost a 57-50 decision to St. Joseph's College at Emmitsburg Thursday. Originally the game was scheduled for March 4.

BULLETIN WIN
Diane Fenstermaker and Linda Walsh led the Gettysburg College girls to a 67-59 victory over East Stroudsburg dribblers here Thursday. The Bulletins (6-1) met Temple at Philadelphia in a doubleheader.

Lent, Good Season For Repentance

By REV HENRY R. EARLY
Pastor, Fisher's Evangelical Lutheran Church

IN THIS SEASON CONQUER
"And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being forty days tempted of the devil." Luke 4:1, 2

Are you fighting a personal crusade, a holy war against some threatening evil, temptation or burden in your life? Do you feel you will be utterly destroyed morally, physically and spiritually if you do not conquer your vice soon? If so, "God bless your every effort to bring your warfare to a victorious conclusion during this Lenten Season (40 days: March 2 — April 16)."

Now! Lent. In this season conquer that demonic practice you have been only playing against or commence that Christian virtue you have been postponing. Do not delay! "No doubt there is a death-bed repentance. But he who uses or rather abuses this truth to postpone his repentance until the eleventh hour of his life is like the man who leaps overboard because he has heard that many a shipwrecked person has drifted ashore on a plank." To postpone your decision to defeat your enemy is to deceive yourself and tempt your God. In this Lenten season, conquer!

"Deadly Spiritual Virus"
What are some demonic practices that plague souls like your own? St. Paul, the great Christian diagnostician of the diseases of the soul, has catalogued a formidable number of deadly spiritual virus: "sexual immorality, impurity of mind, sensuality, worship of false gods, witchcraft, hatred, quarreling, jealousy, bad temper, rivalry, factions, party spirit, envy, drunkenness, orgies and things like that" (Galatians 5:19-21; Phillips translation). "all" diseases but also earthly, family and community diseases as well is reflected in the crime facts for 1957: a major crime was committed every 11.3 seconds; one major crime committed for each 61 persons; crime has increased 56.2 per cent since 1950.

One thing these crimes mean to you and me is that hundreds of thousands of individuals, one by one, lost their health and happiness and freedom, if not their salvation, as a result of their defeat or procrastination in critical decisions. Even when we are not arraigned before a court of law for a civil offense, we stand arraigned before God and our conscience.

"In Bondage To Sin"
"For every infraction of the letter and spirit of the Word of God, we are in bondage to sin: now, as well as in eternity. God is not mocked either in heaven or on earth. On the other hand, repentance and the defeat of every sin brings forgiveness to the sinner out of all proportion to the evil committed."

How does it feel to be forgiven by God following repentance and the conquering of your sin? Let us listen to King Saul's words to young David, heir and successor to the throne of Israel, whom Saul sought to kill at every opportunity while David at every opportunity spared Saul's life: "Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil." That is the way your Father in Heaven forgives you. During this Lenten season conquer that sin and receive God's forgiveness and Jesus Christ's benediction. "Well done, good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord." Lent: In this season conquer! Jesus Christ did! "And the angels ministered unto Him."

The Little Things

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Matthew	18	1-5
Monday	Psalms	141	1-3
Tuesday	I Peter	5	5-7
Wednesday	I Corinthians	3	9-11
Thursday	Psalms	119	54-56
Friday	Psalms	61	1-4
Saturday	Matthew	6	9-13

A child's faith is beautiful in its simplicity and in the little things it encompasses. Like, for instance, the nightly ritual that comes at the end of prayer. "God bless Mommy and Daddy and Cousin Peter and Kitty Kat and my blue teddy bear."

To a child, there is no reason why God should not bless also a crumpled and slightly soiled teddy bear, and a pet kitty. For God is goodness and love and kindness and tolerance . . . not perhaps in those words, but in the feeling this child has as she says her prayers.

Prayer, to the child who has been taught to pray, is a natural thing. It should be as much a part of everyday life as eating and sleeping and playing. To pray for what is good . . . to give thanks for what one has is an all-important step in that all-important right direction on the road of life.

MONIQUE HAS TASK THAT'S NERVE RACKING

By DOROTHY ROE
Speaking of glamour careers, meet Monique de Nervo.
This chic and charming young Frenchwoman has a job that most any girl in the world would give her eye teeth for. As representative of the Chambre Syndicale de Paris she is international good will ambassador for French fashion.

She is in New York in charge of 17 temperamental Paris models and 45 costumes from the haute couture, worth a quarter of a million dollars and weighing 900 pounds. Girls and clothes were flown to the United States for a gala TV spectacular on the evening of Feb. 29, coinciding with the release date of publication of Paris spring fashion pictures. While others are supervising the production, Monique is responsible for the safety and good conduct of models and the priceless gowns from Paris.

Tough On Nerves
"Until you've tried to chaperone 17 French girls in New York," she says, "you'll never know what can happen to your nervous system. And until you've had nightmares about what could happen to a quarter million dollars' worth of Paris originals, through theft, fire or flood, you'll never really value a good night's sleep."

Monique has been one of France's most frequent and popular visitors to the United States for half a dozen years, visiting American cities from coast to coast in the interests of French gloves, French champagne and now French fashions. She is one of the three women in France to receive the French government award of "Conseillers de Commerce Extérieur de la France," loosely interpreted as goodwill ambassador for French commerce.

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—John Morton Fitzgerald, 82, retired top executive of several railroads, died Thursday. He had served as vice president of the Pittsburgh Terminal Railroad and Coal Co., president of the Western Maryland Railroad and vice chairman of the Eastern Railroad.

U. S. Pays To Train Six Cuban Cadets

WASHINGTON (AP)—Six Cuban cadets being trained at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station in Texas are costing American taxpayers $249,000 this year. That figures out to more than $41,000 per cadet.

Last year, $543,000 in Cuban military aid was spent to train the six cadets and other Cuban military personnel and to buy some equipment. The equipment did not include weapons and ammunition.

Another $51,069,000 spent last year on the Dominican Republic, went for "training ammunition required by a Dominican vessel during training exercises with the U.S. Fleet," and for equipment and spare parts for ships.

Lincoln White, State Department press officer, listed the expenditures Thursday for newsmen. A recent Defense Department report included the military aid allotment to Cuba.

Won't Turn Science Over To Government

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dr. Gaylord P. Harnwell, president of the University of Pennsylvania, said Thursday night it would be a "brash man" who insisted the time has come to turn science over to government organization.

Speaking at a dinner of the Delaware Valley regional meeting of the American Chemical Society, Harnwell added:

"It is easy to advocate administrative panaceas such as a secretary for science or an all-powerful science bureau."

But to do this, he declared, overlooks the extraordinarily basic social circumstance "that we are not ready to entrust government to science or trust science to government."

"Attendant" Turns Out To Be Thief

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Myron Haber was only too happy to allow an attendant to park his car in a restaurant lot while he went in to eat dinner Thursday during rain and cold.

When he came out the car was gone. So was the attendant.

Haber when into the restaurant to inquire.

"Attendant?" employees asked.

"Why, we've never had an attendant."

TRY TO BUILD MACHINE TO READ SCRIPT

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—In long hand, write the word "beautiful"—without crossing the "T" or dotting the "I".

Letter by letter there may be some 800 possible readings of your scrawl, a scientist suggested today.

But most people will recognize it for what it is—the word "beautiful."

This is only a taste of what a computer machine is up against when it tries to read what a human has written in script, said Dr. Murray Eden of Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Wonders About Plan
Eden is helping design a computer which reads long hand writing by the letter or the stroke. Now he wonders if this is the most efficient way, he told the fourth annual biophysical meeting.

But humans read by the word—and not by the letter. He suggested machines do the same.

"That's why when uncrossed 'T's' look like 'L's' and undotted 'I's' look like 'E's,' humans look for the word pattern."

Humans in a hurry just don't write the way they learned in school, Eden said.

LAKERS GET OKAY TO MOVE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bob Short, owner of the Minneapolis Lakers says the National Basketball Assn has given him an okay to move his franchise to another city probably Los Angeles.

At the same time Thursday at a special NBA meeting, President Maurice Podoloff announced the new Chicago franchise would not operate next season as had been expected.

Short said he is considering Los Angeles, Washington, Baltimore, Pittsburgh and San Francisco for the franchise shift.

"I personally like Los Angeles right now," he added. "But the board of governors will have to approve the city at the April 11 draft meeting in New York."

Short said he lost a substantial sum of money—"in excess of $50,000"—in Minneapolis this year.

He pointed out that Minneapolis played three of its home games in Los Angeles this year and drew some 23,000 fans.

As for Chicago, which had been

Penn State's Extension Centers, Born In 1930's, Serving Needs Of Many

By LEONARD A. UNGER
UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—It was back in the depths of the depression of the 1930's that the Pennsylvania State University took a long step.

Many parents, strapped for money, couldn't send their children to college. There were tuition charges to be met. On top of it, there were the costs of boarding the potential college student away from home for four years.

Penn State met the problem by converting midtown buildings in Pottsville and Hazleton into extension centers. They offered freshman and sophomore courses—and the student didn't have to leave home.

Plan Worked Well

The parent could see first-hand how well the students did. He could see if it was worthwhile to scrape up enough money to send his son or daughter on to the Penn State campus at State College—now University Park—for the junior and senior years.

The system worked so well that the off-campus college centers were extended to DuBois, Scranton, New Castle, Erie, Ogozitz, Wilkes-Barre, Wyomissing, Allentown, York, Altoona, New Kensington and McKeesport.

Penn State also joins other colleges and universities, such as it is now doing in Harrisburg, to expand the state's educational opportunities.

To Dr. Eric A. Walker, Penn State president, the system of community colleges also provides a solution to the problem of the currently burgeoning college population.

To Double In Decade

Best estimates are that in the next 10 years Pennsylvania's colleges and universities must expand their facilities by at least 50 percent to handle the explosion.

"We are the State University," said Walker. "It's our job to take the lead as far as our resources will allow. We've got to expand our community college system."

Some 5,000 Penn State students now attend the existing community colleges. By 1970, said Walker, the figure will have to be about 10,000.

If the Legislature shows enough interest in the problem, he added,

The POWER of FAITH by Howard Brodie

Faith is an event in the Winter Olympics. Bibles printed in 28 languages, representing the languages of those participating in the games, have been made available in the new Protestant United Church of Squaw Valley by the American Bible Society. There are hymn books printed in three languages. The Catholics have built a Queen of the Snows Church there. Priests and ministers are skiers, able to speak the skiers' jargon in various languages. They are on the slopes during all ski hours and, as unofficial chaplains, have access to the athletes' quarters. To signify that faith is part of the American way of life, the Protestants have brought an American Indian minister, Mitchell White Rabbit, from Wisconsin, who conducts services. On opening day, St. Ullr, patron saint of skiers, was honored in a church ceremony, the "Blessing of the Skis," in which prayers were offered that the skis carry their users safely.

"FAMILY FUN" NIGHT IS HELD AT REDEEMER'S

Family Comedy Night was sponsored by the Youth Fellowships of Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Wednesday evening in the church social hall, when the humorous program presented was well received by all in attendance.

The Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor, introduced the Junior Woman's Club of Littlestown, when 12 members of the club entertained with a skit. A Spike Jones recording accompanied the skit of musical theme with the following participating: Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, Mrs. Bernard G. Kell, Mrs. Jay R. Crouse, Mrs. Conrad C. Hull, Mrs. Robert R. Reinaman, Mrs. Donald C. Feeser, Mrs. William Grove, Mrs. Glenn E. Crouse, Mrs. Wilbur J. Gobrecht, Mrs. William M. Ebaugh, Mrs. Richard Emerson and Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr.

"Charley Weaver from Mt. Ida" appeared in the person of Clayton L. Evans. "Charley," in his usual attire, read letters from "Mama." He was introduced by Marvin F. Breighner. Two humorous monologues were given by Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner, a member of the local high school faculty.

Present Play

The Senior High Youth Fellowship presented a play entitled "The Big Scoop" and the cast of characters included: Sally Basehoar, Wanda Morelock, Thomas Staveland, Judy Flinchbaugh, Eileen Crouse, Larry Unger, Sharon Flinchbaugh, James Krohn, Bernard Weaver; also the Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh, Richard D. Thomas and Richard A. Little Jr., adult advisors.

The entertainment concluded with a puppet show by Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, assisted by her daughter, Sandra. The performing puppets were David Seville and the Chipmunks, Alvin, Simon and Theodore.

Refreshments were available during the evening in charge of the Junior High Youth Fellowship.

Cub Leaders At Planning Session

A planning session of the officials and den mothers of Cub Pack 84 was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Donald C. Feeser, Prince St. Alva H. Stonesifer Jr. was officially welcomed as the new Cubmaster, with Stewart N. Long as assistant. It was announced that the theme for the March meetings of the dens will be "Our Home State."

The program was discussed for the Tuesday session of the University of scouting at the Gettysburg High School, which was on pack administration in charge of Pack 84. Attending were Cubmasters Long and Stonesifer and den mothers, Mrs. Richard B. Harlaub, Mrs. John Harmon and Mrs. Jacob Adams. The den mothers were urged to have the Cub Scouts work for Jubilee and Haines Safari awards. During National Jamboree weekend at Colorado Springs, an outdoor activity was tentatively scheduled, according to the national request. The activity, to later be decided upon, will take place on July 23. The pack program will be furthered at the next meeting on Monday, March 21, at the home of Mrs. Maurice E. Bream, Patrick Ave.

Eddie Kasko, Cincinnati infielder, halted .369 against St. Louis last season. He formerly played for the Cardinals.

Church Women's Group At Meeting

Mrs. Clinton O. Sentz, president, was leader at the monthly meeting of the Abigail Kammerer Circle of the United Lutheran Church Women of St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Tuesday evening at the church. The leader introduced the topic, "Who Is My Neighbor," and the members participated in the discussion. Mrs. Sentz read the Scripture, and announced the World Day of Prayer service will be held next Friday in St. Paul's Church.

The group discussed the current project of sending baby layettes and kiddie kits overseas. When the project is completed, Mrs. Harry Weisel suggested a new project of collecting magazines. Mrs. Milton Harner, secretary, gave her report. The guess package, given by Mrs. Harner, was won by Mrs. Robert W. Gouker. The meeting concluded with the missionary benediction in unison. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Leo Kuhn.

The next meeting of the circle will be held on Tuesday, March 29, at the church with Mrs. Leo Kuhn as leader.

The Woman's Community of Littlestown and vicinity met for the February session on Wednesday evening in the social hall of the Eagles' home, W. King St. Mrs. Robert H. Miller, first vice president, presided for the business.

A "buzz" session preceded the business, the purpose of which was to elicit suggestions from members in attendance concerning programming, possible changes in the constitution and bylaws, the annual bus trip and other membership ideas. The written suggestions will be given to the chairman of each committee concerned for perusal and recommendations at the next meeting.

Routine reports were heard from Mrs. Chester S. Byers, secretary, and Mrs. Sterling J. Wisotzky, treasurer. The resignation of Mrs. Clarence Bechtel was accepted with regret. Correspondence included a note of thanks from the Women's Medical College for a contribution given; thank you note from Mrs. Fred F. Blocher, and a letter from the State Federation concerning the "Intelligent Woman's Guide to Fine Art," copies of which had been distributed at previous times.

Change Chairmen
Mrs. Miller requested that while Mrs. Edward T. Richardson Sr., chairman of the cheer committee, is vacationing, members should notify Mrs. Chester S. Byers or another member of the committee concerning anyone who is ill. Following the request of Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar to be relieved of the chairmanship of the fine arts committee, Mrs. Charles W. Weikert was appointed to replace her. Mrs. Weikert spoke concerning the annual fashion show of the club to be held on Wednesday, April 27, in charge of the fine arts committee.

Advertisement Myers Pumps And Sprayers For Special Farm Tasks

There's a Myers sprayer specially adapted for every type of spraying job in the orchard and on the farm and the newest models are on display at the Arendtsville Garage, area distributors and agents for the F. E. Myers and Bro. Co. of Ashland, Ohio, and Kitchener, Ontario.

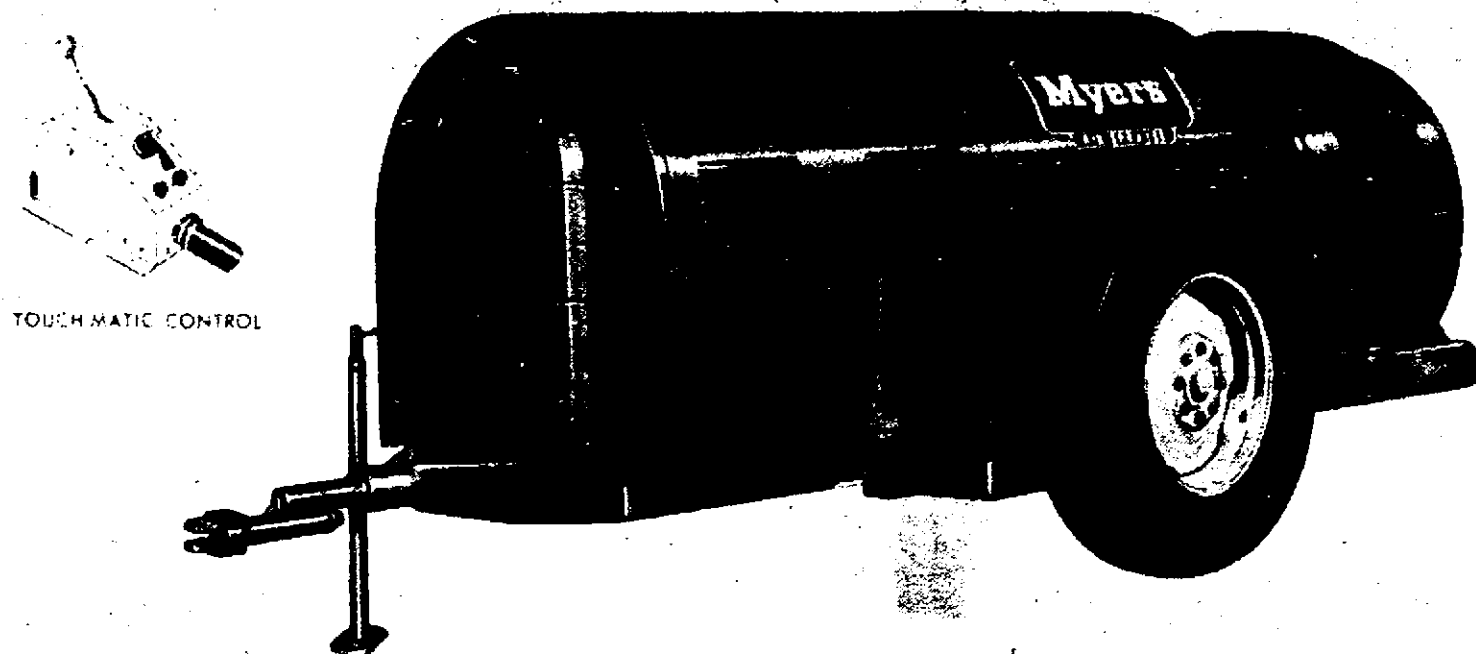

The new model sprayers are built for concentrate, semiconcentrate and dilute air spraying in orchards and groves.

Myers air sprayers of the 225 Series have been redesigned for even greater performance and efficiency in the application of dilute or concentrate sprays in orchards or groves.

Provide Perfect Spray

High pressure, centrifugal pumps and drive-mist nozzles provide perfect spray droplet size for uniform spray coverage.

The 225 puts all the time and

labor saving advantages of large sprayers within the reach of all growers. Glenn Hoke, proprietor of the Arendtsville Garage, explained today.

The Myers No. 225 high head, multi-stage pumps, operating at a speed of 3500 RPM, has the performance to deliver a 60 GPM discharge at a working pressure of approximately 180 p.s.i. Pump is of all cash iron construction with the performance and physical characteristics to handle all types of spray solutions.

Improved Fan Design

The 225 Series engine is a Chrysler Industrial, L head, 100 BHP, 47 BHP continuous duty load with a 17-gallon capacity fuel tank. Its extra large air cleaner is of the oil bath type.

Two centrifugal fans are of an improved design for greater air handling efficiency on the 225 models. The fans can be used for two-way spraying of small fruits or one-sided spraying in trees having dense foliage. This high volume of air, 45,000 CFM and 80-90 MPH, is delivered directly off the fan blades into the tree foliage. No useful air is lost by turning vanes. The operator gets complete coverage and deep penetration into tree foliage. The two all-steel fans are mounted on a precision machined shaft. Fans and shaft are balanced for quiet, smooth operation and longer bearing life.

The blower assembly drive shaft has a resilient rubber coupling which eliminates shock, thus assuring long crankshaft life. The fan speed is 2,000 RPM.

Get 8 Extra Nozzles

A tapered air outlet case directs increased air volume into the top and center of the trees. Four discharge manifolds have 32 drive-mist nozzles for a discharge of 50 GPM at 180-pound pressure. Other capacities are available by changing the nozzle disc size. Manually operated valves at the manifolds can be closed to reduce the discharge rate without changing the nozzle tips.

Eight extra nozzle discs are standard with Myers sprayers. A slide cover for one-sided spraying is sold as extra equipment. Covers should be secured if the sprayer is to be used for extensive spraying on trees with dense foliage, which would require one-sided spraying.

The tank on the 225 is of extra heavy steel and its capacity is 400 gallons. The tank interior is double protected from corrosive action of spray materials by Myers bonded "fire-cured" Epoxy coating. The tank has a flush filler opening with a high capacity filter screen. The agitator is mechanical and of the rotary paddle type.

Almost Automatic

Touch-matic control makes operation of the sprayer almost automatic. Discharge control valves are operated by electric switches giving the operator fingertip control over the spray discharge. One result of all the fine designing and control features are a saving in spray materials through more efficient operation of the sprayer.

The sprayers drawbar hitch is adjustable for three length positions. Overall lengths are 194, 198 and 202 inches. The weight at the hitch center position is 500 pounds with the tank empty or loaded.

HEAVY SNOW, SLEET STORM SWINGS EAST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A fast-moving storm which raked the South and Midwest swept into the Northeast today with heavy snow, sleet and strong winds.

The violent weather dumped heavy snow in western New York state and some sections of southern New Hampshire and Maine. Fresh falls measured seven inches in Buffalo, N. Y.

A mixture of wet snow, sleet and rain pelted southern parts of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont and interior sections of Massachusetts and New York.

The heavy snow line was from southern Illinois into Indiana, northwestern Ohio, southern Michigan and western New York.

Move To New England

The center of the storm, which followed the pattern of several similar storms this month in the eastern half of the nation, was located south of Lake Erie this morning. A new storm center appeared forming over northern New Jersey and was expected to move along the New England coast.

Snow up to more than four inches was in prospect for northern New Hampshire and northern Maine, with heavier falls in mountain areas.

Winds of 25-35 m.p.h. fanned the falling snow into huge drifts in many areas, including Detroit. Gale warnings were displayed along the New England coast and the southern half of the Great Lakes region.

The stormy weather, which in-

Anderson Keeps Lions' Dual Post

DETROIT (AP) — Edwin J. Anderson will continue in his dual role as president and general manager of the Detroit Football Co.

But the Lions' have a new treasurer and two new directors. D. Lyle Fife, himself a former president and a critic of Anderson's management, resigned as both a director and as treasurer Thursday.

Anderson then was re-elected to his dual, $40,000-a-year job and John Stevenson, a retired chemical manufacturer at 45, named treasurer.

William Downey, W. O. (Spike) Briggs Jr., and Arthur Hoffman were re-elected vice presidents.

After Fife's resignation, Lions' stockholders elected Lee Lippman, former Detroit sporting goods store operator, and C. Ray Davison, an electrical contractor, as directors.

CHOPPERS FOR SHOPPERS

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Unpacking a sack of groceries at home, a couple found a set of false teeth in the bottom. Turned out they belonged to a cab driver who said they slipped out of his shirt pocket as he helped his customers with the groceries.

clined a tornado and squalls in Florida Thursday, was blamed for at least 22 deaths.

Most of the icy air which still gripped areas in the Rockies and the midcontinent seeped into the Southeast during the night. Temperatures plunged to near or below freezing. Cold wave warnings were in effect for Alabama, Mississippi, southeast Louisiana and extreme northwest Florida. It was below freezing — 31 degrees — in Jackson, Miss., at midnight.

Southern Florida was out of the cold air pocket, Miami reported a reading of 73 degrees.

Most of the storm deaths occurred in weather-related accidents.

"CORVAIR HANDLES BETTER, STEERS MORE EASILY, RESPONDS MUCH MORE QUICKLY AND HOLDS THE ROAD MORE SECURELY THAN ANY STOCK FOUR-DOOR SEDAN EVER MADE IN THE U.S."
—Jim Whipple, Car Life

If you think we're enthusiastic about Corvair, leaf through the leading automotive, sports and science magazines and see what the experts are saying. Then, by all means, drive one yourself.

"Corvair's steering is so light that at parking speeds it feels power assisted; it is so precise as to be absolutely without play, and it is fast enough to allow complete control over every situation."
—Karl Ludvigsen, Sports Cars Illustrated

"Steers like a feather and is extremely quick. . . . This is a beautifully designed automobile, engineered by real pros. . . ."
—Tom McCall, Mechanix Illustrated

"Most surprising thing to me outside of the excellent handling characteristics was the feeling of roominess inside. . . . I didn't have the sensation of driving a small car and the headroom was greater in the Corvair than in some standard size cars. . . ."
—L. H. Houck, Automotive News

"So far as shopping goes, the Corvair is a housewife's dream. It's small and easily maneuvered without any power steering, and so easily parked . . . it's a lot easier to unload a cart full of groceries into a front trunk at the supermarket than it is into a rear one."
—Rosemary Francis, Popular Science

"I want to state as firmly as I can that the Corvair handles as beautifully and is as safe as—if not safer than—any family car on the road today."
—Jim Whipple, Car Life

MONROE, Wis. (AP) — Mrs. Leroy Dodge received a letter in which she was asked to confirm what songs she plans to sing in a recital.

The program, it turned out, was held 33 years ago.

The letter apparently had been mislaid by Mrs. Dodge's former music teacher who had written it. A relative found the unsent letter recently and dropped it into a mailbox.

New Fiber Law Called Aid To Consumer Buying

By MRS. HELEN TUNISON
County Home Economist

A new Fiber Identification Act goes into effect March 3. It is designed to help homemakers buy fabrics and ready-to-wear intelligently.

Mrs. Helen Tunison

The new act requires that each textile fiber product, such as clothing, be labeled with the generic (family) names and per centages by weight of the fibers in the product.

Seventeen generic (family) groups will be used under the new law. One of these is acrylic, and it includes fibers bearing the trade names of Orlon, Acrilan, Creslan, and Zefran.

Characteristics of the acrylic group are light, warm, resilient fibers; good wrinkle resistance and crease recovery; and resistance to damage from sunlight, moisture, and moths. Uses of the fibers include curtains, coating and dress fabrics, sweaters, fur-like pile fabrics, blankets and rugs.

Fabrics containing acrylic fibers are washable in moderately warm water with a milk soap or synthetic detergent. They need thorough rinsing to prevent yellowing. If fabrics need pressing, a low temperature, such as for silk, is recommended. Homemakers are advised to read the hang tag for specific care directions for the fabric.

Child's Emotional Needs

Adults sometimes are not aware of a child's multiple needs. They may recognize and satisfy a child's physical needs for food, rest, and sleep, but may overlook some of his equally important, but less obvious, complex social and emotional needs.

Parents know their young child has been properly fed and otherwise physically cared for, but they forget he needs love and affection. The child may fuss and cry until these needs are filled and parents may see his actions as being selfish.

When a child makes his parents aware of his needs for love and affection, he is following a course essential to becoming a whole person. He is expressing his need for the approval that helps him develop self-esteem as he grows toward adulthood.

To meet the challenge of adulthood, a child needs support and encouragement from the adult world, which consists of his parents while he is young. Parents must keep in mind the social and emotional needs of their child as well as his physical needs for food and sleep.

Seek To Be Patient

If a parent finds himself becoming impatient with his child, he should try to find out why he is impatient. Finding the reasons may help him become more patient.

Many parents are anxious about their children because they love them. They may want their children to be superior to other children. When they find they aren't outstanding, they may lose patience with them.

Some parents are impatient because they expect more of their children than they do of other children. They may want their children to bring honor and glory to them. Favorable comments about their children's behavior, cleanliness, or intelligence make them feel they are good patients.

Many parents have high expectations for their children because they always want their possessions and actions to be better than anyone else's. Other parents don't know what is reasonable to expect from their children at their age and so expect too much.

SAYS FLIGHT IN JETS IS DISTURBING

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Does the speed of a five hour jet flight from New York to Los Angeles leave you upset?

A Princeton University biologist suggested today it does—merely because it disturbs your normal rhythm of living.

Either a commercial airline or the U.S. Air Force should study such modern day races against the sun, said Dr. C. S. Pittendrigh.

Would Study Pilots

He'd particularly like to study airline pilots who make regular coast to coast trips to see if they are subjected to undue wear and tear, he told a meeting of the Biophysical Society.

For study purposes he'd like to compare the well-being of persons who have just finished East to West or West to East flights against those who have just had North to South or South to North flights.

The North and South travelers likely would have no ill effects while the East and West travelers may show high adrenalin activity for a few days after the trip, he suggested.

New Problem

The problem has only become evident in the last ten years, since German scientists demonstrated some animals navigated by the sun—for instance birds and bees.

Now it is recognized that virtually all living beings have built-in "clocks" based on the 24-hour cycle—the normal span from light to dark to light.

Many things are based on this biologically, for instance: body temperature and activity, Pittendrigh said.

In some other creatures, damage appears to be done by altering the regular 24-hour cycles, he said.

Gifts Presented To Eisenhowers

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil (AP)—Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek and his wife presented rich gifts Wednesday night to President and Mrs. Eisenhower. They gave the visiting President a 17th century silver candelabrum. Eisenhower said it was of such value he would donate it to a museum.

Mrs. Sara Kubitschek handed the President a gold pendant set with a Brazilian aquamarine an inch wide and three inches long for Mamie Eisenhower. The U. S. President smilingly said he would telephone his wife to tell her about it.

day evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Deardorff. Miss Carolyn Adelsberger was the leader and in charge of the worship.

The Fairfield Community World Day of Worship will be held in the United Church of Christ Sunday, March 6, at 7:30 p.m.

The Rev. Lamont Woelk, pastor of the Fairfield Mennonite Church, will be the guest speaker Sunday evening, February 28, at the Bethel Mennonite Church, Biglerville Rd. Special music will be furnished by a quartet from the local church.

YS Lutheran Parish Plans Midweek Rites

Midweek Lenten services will rotate among the three churches of the York Springs Lutheran Parish each Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The first of the services will be Ash Wednesday in the York Springs Church when the pastor, the Rev. Norman L. Bortner, will be the speaker.

Other services will be as follows: March 9, Chestnut Grove, the pastor; March 16, Lower Bermudian, the Rev. Howard Smith, pastor, of the Barrens-Franklin Lutheran Parish; March 23, York Springs, the Rev. Dr. George E. Sheffer, pastor of the New Oxford Lutheran Church; March 30, Chestnut Grove, the Rev. Lester Karschner, pastor of the Abbottstown Lutheran Church; April 6, Lower Bermudian, the pastor; April 13, York Springs, Alfred Bashore, supply pastor of the New Chester Lutheran Charge.

BRECHLER GETS SKYLINE POST

IOWA CITY, Iowa (AP)—Paul Brechler, 48, athletic director at State University of Iowa since 1947, is the new commissioner of the Skyline Conference.

Iowa President Virgil M. Hancher announced Brechler's resignation Wednesday, paving the way for Brechler to move to the Skyline post. Brechler asked that the resignation become effective Aug. 15.

Dr. William E. Morgan, chairman of the Skyline Presidents' Council, said Brechler will assume his new duties Aug. 1.

Brechler's salary was not announced. He received $18,500 a year as Iowa athletic director and head of the Division of Physical Education.

Brechler was embroiled in a controversy with Iowa head football coach, Forest Evashevski, last fall.

Evashevski blamed him when he announced last fall he would resign as coach four years hence. He said working conditions in the SU athletic department were intolerable.

Evashevski never did make public his complaints but some university sources said the complaints were minor and covered such things as mosquitoes on the practice field.

Truck Crashes Into Bus; 1 Killed

RICHMOND, Ky. (AP)—A trailer truck jackknifed on a snow-slick curve early Thursday morning and collided head on with a Greyhound bus carrying 22 passengers.

Only the bus driver was killed. He was Leland S. Cummins, 50, of Lexington, Ky.

All the passengers were taken to a Richmond infirmary, but only one was believed hurt seriously. He is Robert Caylor, 44, of Detroit. Doctors said his left leg was broken.

Many of the passengers suffered severe shock as well as minor cuts and bruises.

One of the passengers, Ronald Consolver, 18, an Air Force enlisted man from Ft. Gordon, Ga., said the impact had knocked him out of a bus window.

Liquor Stores Bring Revenue

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Liquor Control Board reported today the 649 liquor stores produced $74,291,796 revenue for the state during 1959.

The total was $2,298,036 more than 1958. Total sales in 1959 were $279,936,075. The figure includes the state's 10 per cent tax on alcoholic beverages.

However, the figures do not include $4,733,411 realized through the state's 4 per cent sales tax.

State store revenues breakdown to $48,859,267 in profits on operation of the system; $25,432,529 as the yield from the 10 per cent liquor tax, and $4,733,411 for the 4 per cent sales tax, which has been collected on liquor only since last Aug. 20.

1,400 Candidates File Petitions

HARRISBURG (AP)—Nearly 1,400 candidates have filed nominating petitions for the April 26 Primary Election.

They will be seeking party nominations for a host of state and local offices.

The State Elections Bureau completed the mammoth task of checking the petitions Wednesday, disposing of the final 250 about 24 hours after Tuesday's 5 p. m. filing deadline.

BOMB THREATS PLAGUE AREA

HARRISBURG (AP)—State, county and city authorities were up in arms today over the increasing number of false bomb threats at Harrisburg area schools and businesses.

Judge Walter E. Sohn of Dauphin County and Dist. Atty. Martin Lock promised maximum penalties for persons who make such threats.

Lock said conviction carries a maximum fine of $1,000 and a prison term of one year.

They spoke sharply after another false bomb threat was made Thursday at the John Harris High School, the second there in 16 days. Other schools and businesses have received similar threats in the same period.

The Harris students were sent home at noon while a search was made of the building.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, state superintendent of public instruction, and Dr. Fred E. Bryan, superintendent of Harrisburg schools, said in a joint statement that all time lost from the classroom because of bomb scares will have to be made up.

Birmingham in the Southern Assn. has retained its working agreement with the Detroit Tigers for the 1960 season.

Words Of Wisdom, Cogent Observations By Mr. Boyle

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Insights and second guesses:
It's the guy who lives on an expense account who complains most about the high price of bicarbonate of soda.
There's nothing prettier than red-haired girls... but 8 out of 10 of them have crummy looking eyelashes.
It's popular to laugh at young beatniks, but any man who says he never had a yearning to grow a beard himself is a cowardly liar.
Robin's Eye View
We had the first robin of spring as a feathered hero... But if his own kind could appraise him, they'd call him a showoff.
The folks who manufacture Chinese fortune cookies need a new gag writer... Their messages get duller every year.
Magic makes the actress... And the three most magical actresses I know of are Helen Hayes, Audrey Hepburn and Julie Harris.
Total Misery
My idea of total misery would be to be cast up on a desert island with nothing to listen to but a rock 'n' roll record and nothing to read but James Joyce's "Finnegans Wake."
More women than men indulge in jawwalking because they are more used to doing things in their own way.
The world holds no greater example of mistaken hope than a man trying to drown his troubles in dry martinis.
Most waiters will tell you that a complain less about their food than thin men... and leave bigger tips.
Most Henpecked
The most henpecked husbands I've ever met were college professors who married former schoolteachers.
Most people are afraid of big dogs, but it's the nasty small ones which are most likely to sneak up behind and bite you on the ankle.
The most annoying small big shots are those who have their secretaries ring you on the phone... instead of dialing your number themselves.

DISC JOCKEYS WILL PRODUCE TV COMEDIANS
By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Today's radio disc jockeys will be tomorrow's television comedians, says veteran comic Ken Murray.
"Vaudeville's dead, burlesque is dead, tab shows (small-tabloid-musical reviews) are dead," insists Murray, "and there's no place left except disc jockey shows on local radio where a young comic can practice and be bad."
Murray is one of the pioneers of television. After years in vaudeville he became one of TV's biggest comedy stars with a show of his own for three years.
Too Much Tension
"Then I had to get out—the tension was just too much because I'm the guy who has to know every line in the script, every note in the music," said Murray.
He moved into producing, with a fat network contract but immediately got caught in the middle of one of those broadcasting reshuffles which left him with nothing much to do but collect his pay. Then he became an independent producer, and was busily turning out pilot films when his old friend, Maurice Chevalier, shamed him back into performing.
To Be Seen Sunday
At any rate, Murray and Marie

FINAL OLYMPIC TV FEATURES COME SUNDAY
NEW YORK (AP) — The Squaw Valley athletes pack up Sunday, which will give the nation's television viewers a chance to rest and recover from snow blindness.
Aside from the Olympic Winter Games, the next seven days of television promise to be leisurely and mostly entertainment.
Tonight, for example, there's the Telephone Hour (NBC, 8:30-9:30 Eastern Standard Time) with Polly Bergen, John Raitt and the Hamilton Trio providing the singing and dancing. There will also be the men's skating finals from Squaw Valley (CBS, 9-10). CBS' Squaw Valley to History series (10-11) will show us President Eisenhower in Rio de Janeiro.
More Of Olympics
The Olympics ice hockey will be played Saturday (CBS, 4:30-7) and on Sunday afternoon we can catch the 80-meter men's ski jumping and the closing ceremonies (CBS, 2-5). NBC's Sunday showcase is Archibald MacLeish's "Secret of Freedom," starring Tony Randall and Kim Hunter.
Bing Crosby has one of his occasional specials on ABC Monday night (8:30-9:30) with Perry Como as his guest star, plus three of the four Crosby brothers. Later in the evening (10-11) there is NBC's "Paris a La Mode," with emphasis on the clothes of 15 of the great French dressmakers.
Mae West On TV
Helen Hayes is hostess on another of the CBS "Woman" series Tuesday afternoon (3-4), this one concerned with the problems of growing old. NBC's Starline (8:29-9:30) is a Civil War saga, "Jeff McLeod, The Last Rebel." And Red Skelton (CBS, 9:30-10) has Mae West as his guest.
ABC's new series, "Music for a Spring Night," starts Wednesday (7:30-8:30) and Circle Theatre (CBS, 10-11) shows us how New York police recently posed as beatniks to round up a narcotics ring.
President Eisenhower's visit to Argentina, Chile and Uruguay will be shown on NBC's "Journey to Understanding" program Thursday (7:30-8 p.m.).
Wilson—once of "My Friend Irma"—built themselves an act, and now they are working about half of each year in the top night clubs of the country. They will turn up on Sunday night's Ed Sullivan show.
Ann Bancroft, guesting on the Perry Como Show the other night, proved a good comedienne and—more important—a distinctive and engaging personality. Wholesome, out-doesy Roy Rogers and Dale Evans take over the Dinah Shore hour again March 6.
Recommended tonight: Telephone Hour, NBC, 8:30-9:30 Eastern Standard Time — with Polly Bergen, John Raitt and the Hamilton Trio; Olympic Games, CBS, 9-10—men's skating events.

QUICKEY FOR OVERRIDING

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sixteen Democrats and five Republicans in the Pennsylvania House delegation voted unsuccessfully Thursday to override President Eisenhower's veto of a pollution control bill.
Seven Republicans voted to uphold the President's veto of the $90 million dollar bill for clean streams.
The vote was 249 to override, against. Two-thirds majority was necessary to override.
Voting to override were Representatives Barrett, Byrne, Clark, Dent, Flood, Granahan, Green, Holland, Moorhead, Nix, Prokop, Quigley, Rhodes, Toll and Walter, all Democrats; and Curtin, Fulton, Gavin, Saylor and Van Zandt, Republicans.
Supporting the President were Republicans Corbett, Dague, Fenton, Kearns, Lafore, Milliken and Mumma.
Pennsylvania has 30 congressmen. There were two vacancies due to recent deaths.

SELECTION OF COMMISSIONER BEING STUDIED

CLEARFIELD, Pa. (AP) — Albert R. Hinkle Jr., president of the State Fish Commission, said today numerous applications have been received for the vacant executive director's post.

"We are trying to get absolutely the best administrator we can find," Hinkle said. "If possible, we would like him to be a Pennsylvanian."

Former executive director William Voigt, a native of Atlanta, Ga., submitted his resignation effective Feb. 1 at the request of the commission.

Never Explained
H. R. Stackhouse, administrative secretary, has been acting as executive director.

Hinkle said applications for the post have been turned over to Wallace Dean, Meadville, chairman of the commission's personnel committee.

The president said the committee would screen the names and probably would present its recommendations to the commission at its next meeting, about the middle of March.

"But that doesn't mean we will pick anybody in March," he added. "At the present time we have no one in mind."

No reason was given for requesting Voigt's resignation.

RIDE 'EM COWBOY
BENSON, Ariz. (AP) — Joel Sublette, a rodeo rider from Tucson, Ariz., is a hard man to stop.

At a rodeo here he was knocked unconscious in the steer-wrestling event. After being revived, he returned to finish first in bull riding.
